

If Some of The Other Clothiers

don't come down on their price of Men's Overcoats and Ulsters, we won't be able to supply the demand.

They're not overcharging you a penny, though—$3.75 is as cheap as they can afford to sell that Ulster we're selling at $2.98.

You'd Guess

$4.00 a heap quicker than $2.50 for that all-wool school suit we have for boys up to twelve years of age.

$3.00 is more like the usual price of that pretty little Topcoat we're selling at $2.00.
