

ARTICLE VI

The Government of Senegal shall exempt Canadian firms and Canadian personnel, including their dependants, from all resident and local taxes in Senegal levies or other taxes on income arising outside Senegal or from Canadian co-operation funds or from the Government of Senegal, as well as from the obligation to present any declaration in relation to these exemptions.

ARTICLE VII

The Government of Senegal shall exempt Canadian firms and Canadian personnel including their dependants, from any import duties or taxes, on technical and professional equipment and household and personal effects, subject to the re-exportation of all such goods, unless they are in poor condition or are transferred to other persons enjoying the same exemption.

ARTICLE VIII

Each member of the Canadian personnel may import or export, free of customs duties, a motor vehicle for personal use. This privilege may be exercised every two (2) years. However, in the event of fire, theft or an accident causing major damage to the vehicle, such privilege shall be renewable before this period expires. The sale or transfer of such a vehicle shall be subject to the regulations governing the sale or transfer of vehicles belonging to officials of international organizations who are posted in Senegal.

ARTICLE IX

The Government of Senegal shall exempt equipment, products, materials and any other goods imported into Senegal for purposes of project execution from all import duties, customs tariffs and any other import taxes or inspection fees.

ARTICLE X

The Government of Senegal shall allow Canadian personnel and their dependants the right to open bank accounts in foreign currency and to transfer out of Senegal the money they have imported into Senegal, free of currency exchange restrictions.

ARTICLE XI

The Government of Senegal shall facilitate the issue of:

- (a) all permits, licences and other documents required by Canadian firms and Canadian personnel for the performance of their duties in Senegal;
