

The provisions of sub-paragraphs (c) and (d) apply to the Spouse's Allowance specified in that Act.

- (f) The Guaranteed Income Supplement and the Spouse's Allowance payable by virtue of the Old Age Security Act are not exportable.

Survivors' Entitlements

ARTICLE 17

The provisions of this Section apply, to the extent necessary, to the entitlements of surviving spouses and children.

Section 3 – Death Allowances and Benefits

ARTICLE 18

Nationals of Canada or of France who change their residence from Canada to France or vice versa establish entitlement to death allowances or benefits in France or in Canada provided:

- (a) they had been in insurable employment in the State to which they transferred their residence; and,
- (b) they fulfill, in that State, the requirements for the granting of those benefits.

ARTICLE 19

Where the condition of duration of insurance, provided by the legislation of the new State of employment, to obtain entitlement to allowances, is not fulfilled, and in order to complement the insurance or assimilated periods completed in that State, the insurance or assimilated periods completed by the worker in the other State may be used, to the extent necessary, to satisfy the minimum contributory period requirements of the legislation of the State where the death occurs.

ARTICLE 20

1. If death occurs in Canada, the death benefit shall be determined and paid in accordance with the legislation of that State to which the interested person was subject at the time.

2. In the calculation of the benefit the competent authority of Canada shall take account of the periods totalized in accordance with the provisions of Article XIX.

ARTICLE 21

1. If death occurs in France, the death benefit shall be determined and paid, where applicable, according to the legislation of each of the two Contracting States.
