DECLARATIONS RECOGNIZING THE COMPETENCE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE UNDER ARTICLE 41

AUSTRIA

10 September 1978

On behalf of the Republic of Austria, I declare under article 41 of the Covenant on Civil and Political Rights that Austria recognizes the competence of the Human Rights Committee to receive and consider communications to the effect that a State Party claims that another State Party is not fulfilling its obligations under the Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.

CANADA

29 October 1979

“The Government of Canada declares, under article 41 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, that it recognizes the competence of the Human Rights Committee referred to in article 28 of the said Covenant to receive and consider communications submitted by another State Party, provided that such State Party has, not less than twelve months prior to the submission by it of a communication relating to Canada, made a declaration under article 41 recognizing the competence of the Committee to receive and consider communications relating to itself.”

DENMARK

6 April 1978

“[The Government of Denmark recognizes], in accordance with article 41 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, opened for signature in New York on December 19, 1966, for a new period of five years from 23 March 1978 the competence of the Committee referred to in article 41 to receive and consider communications to the effect that a State Party claims that another State Party is not fulfilling its obligations under the Covenant.”

ECUADOR

6 August 1984

... The Government of Ecuador recognizes the competence of the Human Rights Committee to receive and consider communications to the effect that a State Party claims that another State Party is not fulfilling its obligations under the aforementioned Covenant, as provided for in paragraph 1(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g) and (h) of that article.

This recognition of competence is effective for an indefinite period and is subject to the provisions of article 41, paragraph 2, of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.
