

CULTURAL CONSULTATIONS - THE NETHERLANDS/CANADA
CONSULTATIONS CULTURELLES - PAYS-BAS/CANADA

Secteur de coopération Programme: Academic relations	Domaine d'activité Field of Activity: Donation of Canadian books, microfilm and learned journals to Dutch academic institutions, in support of Canadian Studies
--	--

Description:

Donations of Canadian books are made to Dutch university libraries on the recommendation of the Canadian Embassy in The Hague. The lists of desired books are drawn up by recipient institutions themselves. In 1985, special donations of microform resources was given to three selected institutions.

Origine/Background:

The following universities have benefitted from these programs during the past two years:

- University of Groningen
- Free University, Amsterdam
- Agricultural University, Wageningen
- University of Leiden
- University of Tilburg
- Erasmus University, Rotterdam
- University of Nijmegen
- University of Utrecht

The Department also purchases annually 50 subscriptions to Canadian learned journals for distribution to eight Dutch universities.

Objectifs/Objectives:Décision et mise en oeuvre/Decision and Implementation:

For information

Institutions et Organismes/Organizations and Institutions:

Academic Relations Division
Department of External Affairs

The Canadian Embassy, The Hague

FinancementFinancing:

The Department of External Affairs

Estimated Cost:

1984-1986: Books - $7,000
Microform - $5,500
Journals - $3,000/yr

Calendrier, suiviSchedule, follow-up: