

ARTICLE VIIISERVICES

The Parties will enter into consultations with a view to broadening the scope of this Agreement to include trade in services, consistent with multilateral principles established as a result of the negotiations on the General Agreement on Trade in Services.

ARTICLE IXMERCHANT VESSELS, WATERBORNE CARGOES AND INTERMODAL SERVICES

1. In relation to products transported between Canada and Mongolia, neither Party shall create or maintain discriminatory measures of any kind to marketing the services of, securing cargoes for, and transferring payments related to:
 - (a) the merchant vessels of the other Party or merchant vessels chartered by persons of the other Party; or
 - (b) the international intermodal cargo services provided by persons of the other Party.
2. Each Party shall, on the basis of reciprocity with the other Party, permit the establishment and operation of offices to act as agents for the international intermodal cargo services provided by persons of the other Party, for merchant vessels of the other Party, and for merchant vessels chartered by persons of the other Party.
3. In international traffic, the merchant vessels of Mongolia, merchant vessels chartered by persons of Mongolia, and the cargoes of such vessels shall during arrival, stay at, and departure from the seaports of Canada, enjoy treatment, including access to harbour services, accorded to the most-favoured nation. This provision shall not apply to pilotage.

ARTICLE XTERMS OF PAYMENTS

1. Subject to the laws and regulations in force in Canada and Mongolia, all payments in respect of trade between the two countries shall be made on terms mutually agreed upon by the persons party to the commercial contracts governing that trade.
