

Convention on the Recognition and Implementation of Foreign Arbitral Decisions, done in New York on June 10 1958.

5. Nothing in the present Agreement shall be interpreted in such a way as to hamper, nor shall either Party prevent, the parties to commercial transactions from agreeing on any other form of arbitration for the settling of commercial disputes, which they mutually prefer and which, in their opinion, best answers their commercial needs.
6. Persons of Canada and of the Republic of Latvia shall enjoy access to the courts of the other Party on the same basis as persons of any third country.

ARTICLE XII

NATIONAL SECURITY

The provisions of this Agreement shall not limit the right of either Party to take any action for the protection of its national security interests.

ARTICLE XIII

OTHER EXCEPTIONS

Subject to the requirement that such measures are not applied in a manner which would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination between countries where the same conditions prevail, or a disguised restriction on international trade, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit the adoption or enforcement by either Party of:
