

Notes:

(a) Subject to the regulatory requirements normally applied by the aeronautical authorities of Thailand, the designated airline or airlines of Canada shall have the right to enter into cooperative arrangements for the purpose of code-sharing, that is, selling transportation under its/their own code on flights operated by the designated airline or airlines of Thailand and/or on flights operated by any third country airline or airlines. All airlines involved in such code-sharing arrangements shall hold the appropriate underlying authority. The designated airline or airlines of Canada shall be permitted to transfer traffic between aircraft involved in code-sharing operations without restriction as to number, size and type of aircraft.

(b) There shall be no limitation on capacity to be offered by the designated airline or airlines of Canada on code-share services referred to in Note (a) above.

(c) Fifth freedom rights shall not be available on code-shared flights. Intransit rights shall be available at Intermediate Points and at Points in Thailand. Own stopover rights shall be available at Intermediate Points and at Points Beyond.

(d) Any Intermediate Point and/or Point Beyond may be omitted on any or all services, provided that all services originate or terminate in Canada. Points in Thailand may be served separately or in combination but on a code-share basis only.

If the foregoing amendments are acceptable to the Government of Canada, the Ministry proposes that this Note, the text of which is equally authentic in English and French, and the Embassy's note in reply in confirmation thereto, shall constitute an agreement between our two Governments which shall enter into force on the date of the Embassy's note in reply, in conformity with the provisions of Article 19 of the Agreement. Such agreement shall be an integral part of the Agreement between the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand and the Government of Canada on Air Services signed at Bangkok on May 24, 1989.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of Thailand avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Canadian Embassy the assurances of its highest consideration".
