After the expiry of ten years from the date of the entry into force of the present convention, the provisions of the present article cannot be invoked unless the subjects of His Majesty the Sultan of Morocco enjoy in the United Kingdom the treatment of the most favoured nation as regards the matter referred to in this article.

ARTICLE 9

Extracts from "casier judiciaire" shall be delivered to British subjects and British-protected persons resident in the French Zone of Morocco in the same conditions as to French citizens. Neither this article nor article 20 of the General Treaty signed at Tangier on the 9th December, 1856, on behalf of Her late Majesty The Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and His late Majesty the Sultan of Morocco and Fez, shall, however, entitle His Majesty The King to claim jurisdictional privileges accorded on the basis of existing treaties concluded by His Majesty the Sultan of Morocco and the United States of America.

British schools of every grade shall continue to enjoy in the French Zone, especially in regard to the teaching of English, the same liberty as hitherto. They will be subject to the laws relating to State control which are applicable to all European schools in the French Zone.
