VI Financing university study

Attendance at a Canadian university is expensive. No student should come to Canada without possessing or expecting to possess sufficient funds to enable him to complete his university studies and pay his passage home. Sufficient funds for one year must be guaranteed, and evidence must be produced that funds for additional years will be available, before a visa is granted.

The major items of expenditure for a student are tuition fees and room and board. Tuition fees range from $500 to $900, and room and board may cost between $100 and $200 a month. Travel, clothing, books and entertainment will also require a substantial outlay. When a student has selected a university, he should make up a budget of his probable expenditures. A sample budget, based on costs for the 1974-1975 academic terms, appears below. It should not be expected that a student's expenditures will tally with those listed; this model is included simply as a guide in compiling a personal budget. It is likely also that costs will increase from year to year.
