MINISTER FOR INTERNATIONAL TRADE HONOURS TOP CANADIAN EXPORTERS

The Honourable Pat Carney, Minister for International Trade, today presented Canada Export Awards to 12 companies in recognition of their outstanding performance in exporting Canadian products and services to customers around the world. Twenty other companies received an Honourable Mention for excellence in exporting.

The Minister announced the 1987 winners at an awards dinner at the Ottawa Congress Centre during the annual meeting of the Canadian Exporters' Association.

"The hallmarks of this year's winning companies, large and small, were high quality products and service, competitive prices, imaginative marketing and the determination to succeed," the Minister said. "They have proved once again that Canadian exporters can more than hold their own against all challengers."

The winners were chosen in a competition by an independent selection committee composed of: Jeanne Geldart, President, Atlantic Provinces Chamber of Commerce; Wayne Gooding, Managing Editor, Canadian Business; R. A. Kilpatrick, Assistant Deputy Minister, International Trade Development, Department of External Affairs; Bill Neil, Director, Canadian Manufacturers' Association; Frank R. Petrie, President, Canadian Exporters' Association;
