My dear Col. Boney,

A word of thanks for your latest service — the adjustment of my scholarship's financial alignment. I am doing my best over here and it is highly satisfying to know that I am receiving intelligent and loyal support: for, after all, this must be admitted to be a "front-line" post, the scheme has been in travail!

My work here is proving more profitable than I had dared even to hope. More of it anon, though: this is just a note of thanks.

Mrs. MacCormac and I are enjoying life thoroughly, despite the horrible weather!

With warmest regards from us both —

Yours sincerely,

M. Maxwell MacCormac
