

SUPPLY AND WAYS AND MEANS—continued.

mediately to resolutions of customs and excise, 495.

V. Bills: tax bills, 495-496; appropriation or supply bill, 496 et seq.; in the Senate, 500-503; royal assent, 503.

VI. In General: Address to the Crown for an expenditure at close of session, 504; customary in case of public funerals to deceased statesmen, ib.; cannot be moved by private member, 505; audit of appropriation accounts, 505, et seq.

Supreme Court of Canada. See Judiciary.

Supreme or Superior Council; established in French Canada, 3.

Suspension of members; when exercised, 154, 202; new standing order of the English Commons, 382.

Suspension of rules; in the Senate, 215; in the Commons, ib.

Suspension of sitting; in the two houses, 246.

Sydenham, Lord; governor-general, 26 n., 28; his opinion as to a municipal system, 31; his death, 575.

TABLE of the House; mace lies on, whilst house is sitting, 228; petitions laid thereon, 259, 260, 261, 269, 270.

Tacks to Money Bills; resolution of the upper house relative to, 410; remarks of Mr. Speaker Brand on the subject, 500.

Tampering with a witness in attendance; a breach of privilege, 195.

Tassé, Elie; dismissed from service of the house, for breach of privilege, 193.

Tax Bills; originate in committee of the Commons, 500; Senate not to amend, 407, 501-502, 514.

Temperance Act, Canada, of 1878; judicial decisions respecting, 93-96; 681.

Temporalities fund; decision of imperial privy council respecting constitutionality of provincial legislation, 89-90.

Thanks of Parliament; given to distinguished individuals, for signal services, 306; letters in reply communicated to the houses, Ib.

Titles of bills; amended generally on passage, 551, 663; sometimes by committee of the whole, and reported, 542; by select committees on private bills, 656.

Todd, Alpheus; his constitutional works, 181 n.; his opinions on certain questions, 294 n.

Tolls and charges; in private bills, 639; may be imposed by the Senate, 664.

Trade, bills relating to. See Chapter XVIII. on Public Bills, sec. 4.

Treaty of Paris; signed, 6.

Trevor, Sir John; expelled from Parliament, 166, 196 n.

Union Act, 1840. See Parliamentary Institutions in Canada, V.

United States, congress of; form of previous question therein, 337 n.

Unopposed motions; agreed to, without notice, by general assent, 315.

Usher of the Black Rod; appointed to the Senate by commission under the great seal; his duties, 160; at opening of parliament, 225, 229; at a prorogation, 236.

VACANCIES in seats; by death, 139; resignation, 138; acceptance of