

naed.)
 nor must assent to such by-law, 463.
 e to existing company for purchase of works,
 unction of municipal water works.
 ties, towns, villages, and townships may con-
 works, 687.
 at officers, acquire lands, water necessary for e, 687.
 lands and appropriate streams, etc., 687.
 corporation and owner, etc., of property to be bitration, 687.
 owner an infant or under disability, 688.
 unt awarded, 688.
 irt in cases of disability, 688.
 s under disability, 688.
 y be given by publication, 688.
 ayment vest in corporation, 689.
 ct necessary works, 689.
 enter on intermediate lands and lay down pipes
 e, 689.
 ways to be restored to original condition as soon 689.
 set out lands necessary, 689.
 wn pipes and make alterations, 690.
 or damages done, 690.
 sted in corporation, 690.
 across railways, 690.
 ay down service pipes and be responsible for
 pipes across space between line of street and place 690.
 ts of laying service pipes, etc., 691.
 be under control of corporation, 691.
 ice pipes, 691.
 te of wall of building not to be used by water 691.
 aps to be used by water tenants, 691.
 for inspection of premises and other premises, 691.
 use of water and of rates, 692.
 be a charge on property, 692.
 intaintenance and management of works, 692.
 llection of water rents, etc., 692.
 ments of rents, 693.
 acting distress and sale, 693.
 not invalidated by attempts to collect, 693.
 subject to lien by treasurer, 693.
 oy collectors and other officers, 693.
 l powers of officers, 694.
 actions, 694.
 of corporation for breakage or stoppage, 694.
 on which corporation has made advances, etc.
 ution, 694.
 ter outside of municipality, 694.
 onger required may be sold, 695.

WATER WORKS—(Continued.)

No member of council to be interested in any contract, 695.
 Liability of persons damaging municipal water works, 696.
 By-laws prohibiting wrongful use of water and regulating supply, 696.
 Penalties for infractions of such by-laws, 696.
 Prohibitions and penalties, 696.
 Hindering or interrupting officers and works, 696.
 Wasting water, 696.
 Interfering with hydrants, stop-cocks, etc., 697.
 Fouling water or injuring pipes, 697.
 Altering meters, 697.
 Connecting with mains without consent of corporation,
 697.
 Tainting water, 697.
 Summary conviction for offences, 697.
 Application of penalties, 698.
 Money borrowed for works to be a first charge on works and lands, 698.
 Revenue to form part of corporation funds, 698.
 Power to purchase existing works, 698.
 Council may exercise all powers or elect commissioners, 698.
 Powers of commissioners, 698.
 Employees of council continued until removal by commissioners, 699.
 Authority of council to provide moneys not affected, 699.
 Head of council to be ex officio a commissioner, 699.
 Number and election of commissioners, 699.
 Majority to constitute a quorum, 699.
 Qualification of commissioners, 699.
 Commissioners to take oath of qualification, 699.
 When place of commissioner to become vacant, 699.
 Salary of commissioners, 699. (c)
 Commissioners not to be interested in contracts, 700.
 Council may remove commissioners and reassume control, 700.
 Assent of electors required in such case, 700.
 Commissioners to keep separate account of water rates, 700.
 Books to be open to inspection by council, 700.
 Annual returns to be made to council by commissioners, 700.
 Commissioners to furnish information required, 701.
 Accounts of commissioners to be audited, 701.
 Commissioners to take oath of office, 701.
 Record of proceedings to be kept, 701.
 Rates to be paid by commissioners to treasurer, 701.
 Construction of water works for portion of municipality only, 701.
 By-laws imposing special rates for such works, 701.
 For the management of such works, 701.
 Rates to be charged for minor water works, 702.
 Persons requesting benefit of minor works after construction, 702.
 County Judge to hear complaints against by-laws passed in such cases, 702.
 By-laws for renting hydrants etc., from persons or companies, 702.
 Mode of assessment for such purposes, 703.
 Municipality to contribute to purchase of hydrants benefiting whole municipality, 703.