

occasionally, to cause a smoke by some means in the halls before giving the signal. No risk of fire should be run in causing this smoke.

It is advisable to confine the pupils to one means of exit occasionally, so as to be prepared for the contingency of having the other cut off by fire.

Principals should sometimes halt the pupils in the midst of a Fire Drill, so as to train them to stop instantaneously in case of an emergency.

The Principal of each School shall call his teachers together at least once a month, after 4 p.m., to consider matters relating to the teaching, management, and discipline of the School. A record, showing the names of the teachers present, and the business transacted, shall be kept by the Principal, in a minute book provided by the Board.

46. The books used and the studies pursued in all the schools shall be such, and such only, as may be authorized by the Board.

47. The daily exercises of each school shall accord with the general programme of studies adopted by the Board, and a printed time table shall be suspended in every class-room.

48. Teachers are required to conform to the rules and regulations of the Board under the
