THE SUSPENSION of Messrs. John Robertson, Son & Co., of Toronto, will be heard of with regret among the community at large. Established in 1839 by John Robertson, sen., since his death, some seven years ago, the firm has not been considered financially strong. They chiefly in England. The lotal habilities, it is supposed, are considerably under $200,000, and about one-third in Ganada. A leading agency for Ganadian Cottons and a Canadian Thread Manufacturing Co. are the principal creditors in this city. It is understood that Mr. Robertson will leave in a day or two for England, and it is hoped that he will be able to secure an extension, as it is believed that with time he will be able to extricate the firm satisfactorily.
