A TREATISE ON THE LAW OF INJUNCTIONS
AS ADMINISTERED IN THE COURTS OF
THE UNITED STATES AND ENGLAND.
By James L. High, Counsellor-atLaw, Chicago. Callaghan & Co., 1873.

This seems to be a most useful book; we have not had time, however, as yet, to examine it critically. We will refer to it again at length.

THE LAW MAGAZINE AND REVIEW. Butterworths, Fleet Street, London, May and June, 1873.

These numbers contain a variety of articles more or less interesting to us in Canada. The June issue is the best of the two. We hope to find room for some of them: our readers, however, would do well to subscribe, and then they can make their own selection.

American Law Review—Little, Brown & Co., Boston. April, 1873.

The Essays in this number are entitled Recoupment—Suits between Aliens in the Courts of this Country—Contract by Letter—The Hyperion's Cargo, a merchant shipping case—State Taxation of National Banks, &c. Then there are the usual digests of English and American reports, Book Notices, Summary of Events, &c.
