

Her Principles will shelter too
And succor while the world we plod,
They pave the highway leading to
Our God.

Her Principles suggest a key
To open hearts, to love with zest,
Till when with God the soul will be
"At Rest."

They are the frame or skeleton
With sinews nursing Gracious food;
Without them zeal, will prove, when done
No good.

No good are kings' activities,
Nor willingness much life to give,
Unless the Christian Principles
They live.

No good is making sacrifice,
In hope of soothing mind and soul;
Unless the Christian Principles our lives
Control.

Christ's sacrifice alone can't rid,
Nor banish sinning from our heart:
He glory has, because He did
His part!

But while we laud high Principles,
Their beauty wanes, without the Graces,
Which upon us Christ's example
Places.
