

Article 13.

The Secretary shall report the names of all members in arrears to the Association immediately preceding the Election of Officers. He or she shall keep a book in which he or she shall record all receipts and disbursements and shall report the same annually or at such periods as the Association may require it.

Article 14.

Any member may withdraw from membership in the Society by giving notice in writing to the Secretary. Upon receipt of such notice by the Secretary his membership in the Society shall cease.

Article 15.

Members guilty of misconduct, upon conviction (after a proper investigation) may be expelled, suspended, fined or reprimanded by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any meeting of the Association, provided there be not less than twenty-five members present; and any Officer of the Association may be removed from his or her office by the Executive Committee for such cause as in its opinion it may be deemed sufficient.

(2) In case any complaint made against a member for misconduct, the President shall appoint a committee of five to investigate the matter of the complaint. The committee shall hear the complainant and the member charged and such evidence as they may produce, and shall report its findings to the next general meeting of the Association.

Article 16.

No monies shall be borrowed upon the credit of the Association except under a resolution of an extraordinary meeting duly called for that
