

SITKA, THE CAPITAL OF ALASKA. This ancient capital of the Romanoffs is still the seat of Territorial Government. The principal object of interest is the Greek Church, presided over by a native Indian priest.