

To the agricultural class of emigrants every possible encouragement is given : such as are simply desirous to obtain work, if they proceed direct to York, are more sure to obtain it than in the Lower Province, where the rate of wages is much lower. The general prices to a farming labourer, in the neighbourhood of York, Guelph, and Goderich, varies from eight to twelve dollars per month, and his board. Some thousands landed last season at York, and all found employment. It is also a matter of much encouragement to the poor class of emigrants to know, that the legislature, aided by the assistance of some gentlemen in and about York, have this year erected a commodious brick building in York, for the temporary use of such emigrants as may need it, and to prevent the inconvenience which has happened from their not being able to find accommodation at inns on their first arrival. It will be the duty of the Superintendent of that establishment to seek out employ, and direct those who wish it to persons in the country who require servants. This last season, much grain, within fifteen and twenty miles of York, was wasted for want of hands in the harvest.

Passages to Quebec may be obtained on the most reasonable terms, from any of the great shipping ports in Great Britain and Ireland ; it is expedient that the emigrant should embark early in the season, that he may have the summer before him, and leisure to settle his family comfortably before the winter sets in.

The expense of conveying a family from a port in the United Kingdom to York, Upper Canada, is as follows :—
3*l*. for the passage of an adult from England to Quebec ; children 1*l*. 10*s*. ; provisions about as much more, and from
