

At Twenty-Two

We have placed in stock a line of Blue Cheviot Suits to sell for twenty-two dollars that are really a surprise to ourselves—and we are used to handling good values.

Sometimes, as you know, the markets afford better opportunities than at others, and we happened to hit it just right when we secured these splendid suits to sell at Twenty-Two. The Serge is one of those beautiful soft-feeling fabrics that can only be found in the best wools. The shade is a rich indigo, and the suits are trimmed with our own special linings.

Take them all in all you'll find them very hard to duplicate even at Twenty-Five outside of our store. We sold one to a gentleman yesterday and he said it was the best fitting suit he had ever had—and he's some dresser, too. You see, we are an all-clothing store, and hard to beat when it comes to values.

Here Are the Rules of the $5,000 PROVERB CONTEST

READ THEM CAREFULLY!

The Toronto World Proverb Contest is a test of skill and diligence, designed to encourage thought and research on the part of the young and provide a pleasant mental diversion for everyone.

Every day, for a period of seventy-five (75) days, there will appear in The Toronto Daily and Sunday World an illustration, cartoon or other representation of a commonly used and well-known English proverb.

The Toronto World will award PRIZES AGGREGATING OVER $5,000 IN VALUE to readers of The Daily and Sunday World who send in the correct or nearest correct answers to the entire series of illustrations. The first correct picture was published in The Daily World, Thursday, October 3rd.

The correct answers, to serve as a basis of awards, are being selected according to their common use by the Contest Manager, and three representatives of The Daily and Sunday World, and will shortly be placed under seal in a Safety Deposit Vault.

1. The Toronto World's Proverb Contest is open to all readers of The Daily and Sunday World in Canada, except employees of The Daily and Sunday World and members of their families. Anyone not excepted as above mentioned may enter the contest by simply becoming a regular reader of The Toronto Daily and Sunday World.

2. Contestants must write the Proverbs represented by the illustration upon the coupon provided therefor and which will appear on Page 2 of The Daily and Sunday World every day during the Contest. Answers may be written with pen, pencil, or typewriter, and arranged in any manner to suit the contestant.

3. Each picture represents only one proverb. Where contestants are not certain as to the correct proverb represented, they will be permitted to send five (5) answers (not more) to each proverb illustration. If the correct answer is given, the correct answers will not count against a contestant.

4. Only one answer may be written upon a single coupon. Extra coupons must be used for additional answers, and all coupons of the same number must be kept together in making up the answers.

5. Different members of a family may compete in the contest, but only one prize will be awarded to any one family or household, and only one set of answers will be accepted from any individual contestant.

This list of correct answers will remain under seal until called for by the judges, whose names will be announced in due course, and who will have full control of the examination of the answers and the awarding of the prizes.

The correct answers are also included in The Toronto World's Book of English Proverbs, which is published as a guide and reference for contestants' use in the contest.

To compete for the prizes, contestants need only to supply the proverb represented by the illustrations that will appear daily, and send in their answers, at the close of the contest, according to the rules. The person sending in the correct or nearest correct list of answers to the entire series of seventy-five (75) illustrations will be awarded the first prize. The person sending in the second nearest correct list of answers will receive the second prize, etc., etc. Entry may be made at any time before the contest is entirely closed. Rules follow:

1. Answers must not be sent in until the last proverb illustration has been printed. After the last picture has been printed, contestants must arrange their coupons in numerical order, fasten them securely together and deliver or mail them in a neat, flat package (not folded or rolled, plainly addressed to the Contest Manager, The Toronto World, Toronto, Canada, within the time specified in the following rule.

2. The time of receiving answers will have no effect upon the awarding of the prizes with this exception: All answers must be delivered at the Office of The Toronto World or bear postmark of mailing of not later than midnight, December 28, 1912, twelve days after the last of 75th picture is published.

3. The prizes will be awarded to Toronto Daily and Sunday World readers sending in the correct or nearest correct set of answers to the entire series of seventy-five (75) Proverb illustrations.

4. In the event of a tie between two (2) or more persons, the contestant sending in the nearest correct list of answers with the least number of coupons will be declared the winner. Where two (2) or more contestants submit the same number of correct answers, the value of the prize or prizes tied for will be equally divided among those tying.

5. In making the awards, the judging committee, whose names will be announced in due course, will take into account the similarity and exact wording of the proverb answers as selected by the Contest Manager and three representatives of The Daily and Sunday World, and as contained in The Toronto World's Book of English Proverbs: spelling, wording, punctuation, and the correct construction of the proverbs are the essentials that will be graded.

6. Where a set of answers is securely fastened together the contestant will be permitted to stamp (with rubber stamp) or abbreviate his or her name on the space allotted for same, and omit the full address from the greater majority of the blanks. PROVIDED THAT SUCH FULL NAME AND FULL POST-OFFICE ADDRESS is plainly and distinctly written upon the FIRST SIX AND LAST SIX BLANKS of the set.

7. In sending in the answers at the close of the contest it is important that contestants seal all packages containing answers, and if mailed, contestants should exercise great care to see that postage is fully prepaid at the rate, one cent per ounce, or fraction thereof, in Toronto, and two (2) cents per ounce, or fraction thereof, outside of Toronto, as The Toronto World is not bound to pay postage due on any set of answers.

8. All communications or letters of enquiry concerning the Proverb Contest must be addressed to the Contest Manager, Toronto World, Toronto, Canada.

WILL EXONERATE LABOR OFFICIALS

McNamaras and McManigal Acted Independently of Union, Declares Attorney Harding.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 8.—(Can. Press.)—What the defence will be in the trial of the 45 men accused by the government of complicity in the "dynamite conspiracy," was outlined before the jury today by William N. Harding, attorney for the defendants.

Mr. Harding said at the outset it would be shown that the executive board of the International Association of Bridges and Structural Ironworkers never appropriated a dollar to be used for dynamiting. He asked the jury to suspend judgment until after the witnesses had testified. If anyone connected with the union diverted the funds for any illegal purpose, the guilty persons, he said, it would be shown, were not among the present defendants.

"When you have heard all the testimony," said Mr. Harding, "we think you will have concluded that about three men were engaged in the nefarious work of dynamiting, and that those three men already have pleaded guilty."

"Jobs" Not Sinister Term. Referring to letters written by Frank M. Ryan, president of the Ironworkers' union, to various business agents, which the government used in showing that "jobs" was the term used to designate explosions against employers of non-union labor, Mr. Harding said it would be shown that "jobs" meant only new work which offered opportunity for union men to get employment. He added it would be upon the very letters which the government quoted in the indictments that the defence expected to rest its case.

Once Mr. Harding became so vehement in answering District Attorney Charles W. Miller, that Judge A. R. Anderson interposed. "The court will make allowances for your enthusiasm for the defendants, but it is not necessary for you to split the ears of the jurors in an opening statement."

The district attorney had just completed an address to the jury of 22 hours, covering five days.

LOAN SHARK FINED. NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 8.—When the cases of Gustave A. Young and G. S. Smith, both of Buffalo, who are alleged to have operated as loan sharks at Port Erie, came up before Magistrate Frazer today, Young was fined and fined $10 and costs, while Smith's case was held over for one week.

TAILORS' STRIKE NOW NEARLY ENDED

Three Hundred Journeymen Have Joined Union, and Rest Are Expected to Soon Sign Up—Strikers Have Received $14 Per Week for Seven Months.

The leaders in the journeymen tailors' strike in this city, which has been waged since March 1, believe the end is now in sight. More than 300 tailors have joined the strikers, and the 50 or so that are still at work will strike before the end of the week if the anticipations of Hugh Robinson, the official Canadian representative of the International Union, are sustained. On Sunday a mass meeting was held in Zion Institute on Simcoe street, when the gathering, composed partly of strike-breakers, was addressed by Dr. Shayne. As a result of this effort, 22 additional tailors laid down their scissors yesterday morning, and as some of these are sub-contractors, over 60 names were added to the list of strikers. There remain now only 50 tailors at work in Toronto, and a number of them have indicated their intention of quitting work before the end of this week.

Yesterday morning 11 tailors employed by Michael Jacobs in his shop at 490 West Adelaide street, walked out on the complaint the Jacobs had broken his agreement made six months ago to maintain a union shop.

Receive Strike Pay. Since the 350 tailors, members of local union 182 went on strike, seven months ago, they have received $14 a week from the funds of the International Journeymen Tailors Union. This organization has already spent $50,000 on the present Toronto strike, and, according to Mr. Robinson, is willing to spend another $100,000 if that is necessary. Considerable sympathy has been aroused in local labor circles on behalf of the striking tailors. During the past week $500 has been contributed to their funds, $300 from Bricklayers' Union No. 2, and $200 from the District Trades and Labor Council. Mr. Robinson showed a World reporter cheques received yesterday, to be used in the fight, one for $5 from a union in Butte, Mont., and another for $2 from Phoenix, Ariz. The local garment workers, who number 2000 in the Toronto organization, are ready to back up the tailors if their assistance is required. H. D. Rosenbaum, general organizer of the garment workers, stated last night that he did not believe that would be necessary, however, as he looks for a settlement by the end of the week.
