FUNERAL OF MILTON HAIGHT.

The Mathematical Master of the Strathroy Collegiate Institute Dies of Typhold

Fever While Visiting at Newmarket.

Newmarket, Aug. 7.—The funeral took place here yesterday of Milton Haight, b. A., late mathematical master of Strathroy Collegiate Institute, from the residence of his father, Arnoldi Haight, to Newmarket Cemetery. Mr. Haight was a graduate or Toronto University of the class of 1884 and was a medallist in mathematics. Upon graduating, he was engaged for a year in the Port Hope High School and then went to Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore to take a post-graduate course in that institution. After two years there he accepted an engagement in the Imperial College at Sapporo, Japan, where he remained nearly five years. On his return from Japan he was offered a position in Whetham College, Vancouver, B.C., which he filled for a year. He had just completed his firity year at Strathroy and was spending a few days of the vacation with relatives at Waterloo when he was taken il with typhold fever, and though not though to be dangérously ill ded suddenly there on the evening of the 4th inst. Victoria Park drew big picnics last week, many of the visitors being from outside city points. A band stand has been erected in Munro Park under the irees, and the promenade concerts given have become one of the features of entertainment in the East End.

At 3.45 p.m. this afternoon the long-talk-ed of match between the Capitals of Ottawa and the Tecumsehs of this city will take place. Both teams are in superb condition and each is confident of victory. The advance sale of seats, which closes at Nordheimer's to-day at noon, is the largest on record.

Both afternoon and evening the Grens and at the evening concert Trooper H. C. Crane will sing "What's Our Own We'll Hold and "Oh, That Gorgonzola," and Master Eddie Selman, pupil of Mr. Michael Shoultz, will sing "Bill the Boatswain" and "Selected."

In yesterday's Police Court the cases against W. C. Latimer and S. C. Detchon, for alleged breach of the Trade Mark Act, were disposed of by each of the defendants pleading guilty and being subjected to a nominal fine. The trouble arose over an infringement of the trade mark of Carter's Little Liver Pills, came to Toronto, and a large quantity of the imitation pills were selzed. Detchen, who was an agent for the pills that caused the trouble, and Latimer, who exposed them for sale, were summoned to the Police Court, pleaded not guilty and elected to go to a jury. The case has been dragging along from week to week, and counsel for the defendants yesterday elected to plead guilty if only a nominal fine would be imposed. The Crown Attorney consented, remarking that he understood the imitation pills had not been withdrawn from the market until after the proceedings had begun, and he stipulated the words "Little Liver" be dropped from the label. A fine of $2 and costs was imposed in each case.

We are approaching closely to the parting of the roads—summer will soon be ending, and a few weeks more will see us into the flush of a new season's trade. You expect great things of this store, and the planning for the fall season has never before been on so gigantic a scale. Our buyers have spent more than the average time traversing foreign markets, and the showing of new goods for the fall will be worthy of this, the leading retailing headquarters in Toronto-leading in all that is best in everything. Interest near the stopping of the road is in disposing of goods that are largely of a summer character, and bargains in this way stand before you and meet you at every side as you meander through this beautiful store.

Quickest Clearing in Men's and Boys' Hats

Considering what was first price for these goods, and you know that first price with this store is often the starting point with others, it would seem difficult to credit the big cut in prices that we are making in this department at this immediate time. But our little talk above explains all -everything of present season's stocks must go out.
