

class of young girls with great regret, it was the less, inasmuch as all of them had been led to accept Christ as their great Teacher and Saviour. From most of the older classes one or more have made confession of their faith, so that in all 24 names from the school have been added to the communion roll of the Church.

Respectfully submitted,

I. GAMMELL,

Secretary.