Englishman Under Arrest After Having Received Over 200 Letters.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 26.—If the Pittsburg police had not stepped in just when they did there would have been a real financial stringency here within a couple of weeks, for Pittsburg's society's "250" were simply falling all over themselves to hand out money to Reginald Spaulding.

Spaulding arrived here three weeks ago and registered at the Hotel Henry. Immediately upon his arrival Spaulding invested in a "Blue Book" which contains the names of Pittsburg's "society," and then got busy. He cornered the market for the following letter, which was mailed to over 200 Pittsburg women:

"Dear Madam:—I beg to inform you that I am making a tour of the country, arranging with those who are desirous of being introduced into London society, or at least, I am also thoroughly versed with all matters of finance in England and on the continent. I shall deem it a favor if you will be interested in any of the above-mentioned matters. If so, I shall be pleased to call and convey any particulars you may desire. I make no charge in any way, my remuneration to be determined by the demands made upon my influence. Very truly yours,

"Reginald Spaulding."

When Spaulding's rooms at the Henry were searched by the police last night they found almost 200 answers to the letter, and there wasn't one of them but held out encouragement to Spaulding.

LEMIEUX SEES HAYASHI.

Received Assurances That Japan is Planning Limitation of Emigration.

TOKIO, Nov. 26.—Rodolphe Lemieux, Canadian post master general and minister of labor, to-day had a conference lasting three hours with minister of foreign affairs Hayashi, at which the emigration problem was discussed.

It is understood that he received assurances that the Japanese government is now engaged in planning the limitation of emigration to Canada.

The opinion is entertained here that after the return of Kikui Yiro Ishii, chief of the bureau of commerce of the foreign office, the government will announce its decision to limit the emigration of all classes of Japanese to America, pending the adjustment of the existing differences.

A meeting of the various emigration companies, at which the situation will be discussed, has been called to convene at the chamber of commerce on Tuesday, December 3rd.

CLAIMS HE WAS EJECTED BUT TWO STORIES DIFFER

Contrary Versions of Midnight Affair Which Has Caused Damage Suit.

Thomas G. Morehead and Edna Morehead of Palmerston have begun an action against E. R. Hurst of the Daily House, Toronto, seeking damages for breach of contract between them as landlord and guest, and for trespass, assault, slander and illegal ejection made of Morehead and his wife, after midnight, from the Daily House.

Morehead alleges in the writ, which was filed yesterday at Osgoode Hall, that while he and his wife were traveling from Toronto to Brantford on Thursday last, they missed the 11:30 O'clock G. T. R. train, and were admitted as guests into Mr. Hurst's hotel, to remain until morning.

They paid $4 in advance for their bed and breakfast. About 1 o'clock in the morning they were aroused and ordered to leave the hotel and were forcibly ejected in a violent manner, with the statement that they were unmarried and they were so suspected when they were received as guests, and a double fee exacted from them. The Moreheads claim that the ejection was made materially. Mr. Hurst says:

"In the first place this man registered as G. Morehead of Detroit, Mich., while he now says he is of Palmerston. He was not overcharged. The price he paid was our regular rate for two people for the room he occupied, which is on the parlor floor and one of the best rooms in the house. Further, no one ever laid hands on him or on the woman who was with him, and he was not even ordered to leave the hotel. He left of his own free will before midnight. They had no luggage."

"I did not see the man when he first came to the hotel. It was the night clerk whom he saw. I was waiting in the office to close the bar at 11 o'clock, so I knew that had he wanted to, he could easily have caught any train leaving at 11:30."

"When told the price of the room, he said it was too much and went out. He and the lady went to the Grand Central, but they came out in a few moments and went to the Daily House. In a few moments they came back to the Daily House."

"They ordered two whiskeys and a bottle of beer. This was sent up and then a gentleman who had been sitting in the rotunda, but whose name I do not wish to give, came to the clerk and asked him to call Mr. Morehead to the office. He became furious and cursed the clerk who told him to call himself as no one meant to insult him, but he must come to the office. A few moments later Morehead came into the office. The clerk allowed him to go, but he must come to the office. He did not answer me, but said he would not stay in the hotel. He had paid for the room and he would have it. I told him he could have it in the morning. As the couple went the woman turned around and put her tongue at the clerk and said that we were no good and could not prove anything."

"His solicitor has since telephoned me. I told him that he could have money at any time and that I had not even entered it in my cash book."

ATTACKED A TOWN.

Group of Canadians and Englishmen in This Adventure.

BLOEMFONTEIN, Nov. 26.—The first ministry of the Orange River Colony under the new constitution has been formed.

All the members are Boers except one, Gen. Dewet, who is minister of agriculture.

A constitution was granted to the Transvaal last year. On Dec. 17 last announcement was made in parliament in London that a legislature and a full responsible government would be conceded to the Orange Free State, now known as the Orange River Colony, in the course of 1907. The preliminary steps have been in progress for some time and the autonomy of the colony is now virtually realized.

"Dear Madam:—I beg to inform you that I am making a tour of the country, arranging with those who are desirous of being introduced into London society, or at least, I am also thoroughly versed with all matters of finance in England and on the continent. I shall deem it a favor if you will be interested in any of the above-mentioned matters. If so, I shall be pleased to call and convey any particulars you may desire. I make no charge in any way, my remuneration to be determined by the demands made upon my influence. Very truly yours,

High Pressure Alarm System.

Fifty fire alarm boxes will be established temporarily at points along the route of the high pressure water main, with a connection thru the central station to the pumping station at the foot of John-street. This is for the purpose of giving the engineer in charge of the high pressure plant the signal to start the pumps.

When the new central engine system of alarm boxes is established all the boxes down town will have connection thru to the pumping station, and the fifty temporary boxes will then be used at other points.

The mission work on coast. Rev. John Antle describes his work in British Columbia Waters.

Rev. John Antle last evening, in the schoolroom of St. Philip's Church, Spadina-avenue, described the great work which he is doing in the north coast of British Columbia on the sound between Vancouver Island and the mainland, where he brings spiritual and medical ministrations to the people.

The mission is only a couple of years old, and within a year became self-sustaining. The work is of the most arduous and difficult kind, and the erection of a third is contemplated, while the small steam vessel used for the work is fitted up for surgical purposes. This vessel cost $4000, and a larger and stronger one is needed to enable the work to be extended northward into the rough waters of the Gulf of Georgia, and to permit of this enlargement of the field of operations. The annual expense is some $6000, but the men pay $10 a year for hospital tickets.

Rev. Mr. Antle, who was the incumbent of Holy Trinity Church in Vancouver, was called to the charge of this mission, leaving this evening for his field of labor.

Great Deal of Grain Will Be Hauled Overland This Winter.

DR. T. S. Smellie, M.L.A. of Fort William, is in the city in the interest of his constituents. He says the twin cities feel the effects of money stringency, but none of the large industries are laying off hands. The doctor says the elevators are full, and there is much grain to come down from the west, so that he anticipates a great portion of the crop will be hauled by rail to the seaboard during the coming winter.

"TICK" KILLS PARTRIDGE.

STATE DEPOPULATED.

Legislation is Sought to Bring About Close Season of at Least Two Years.

ALBANY, Nov. 26.—Commissioner J. S. Whipple of the state forest, fish and game department announced to-day that an effort is to be made at the coming session of the legislature to secure legislation to bring about a close season for partridge for at least two years.

The state has practically been depopulated of partridges as a result of an epidemic known as "tick," which has been prevalent in this state, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and which has been the cause of the depopulation of the game protectors of the state and the New York State Fish and Game League.

To be held in Syracuse, the proposition for a close season is to be presented for the endorsement of those organizations.

ENGLAND WITHOUT A CARDINAL.

Disatisfaction Resulting From Recent Appointments by the Pope.

ROME, Nov. 26.—The selection of new cardinals again has caused dissatisfaction among the English-speaking Catholics who are not represented in the new list. Especially is this the case with those of England who have been without a cardinal since the death of Cardinal Vaughan.

According to the statements made at the Vatican it was found impossible to give another cardinal to America, as all the Latin-American countries would also claim their right to one, already considering themselves badly treated because a cardinal had been granted to Brazil alone.

Two French cardinals were named. The Pope wishing to reward the loyalty of the French, most of them being in the French government and the Vatican, Monsiegnor Carrier, Bishop of Montpellier, who was preferred by the Pope, was not appointed.

The Pope fearing that this might be considered a manifestation against French institutions.

KINGSTON, Ont., Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The water works committee recommended reductions in water rates of 10 per cent for dwellings; $1.50 to $1 for baths; $2.40 to $2 for laboratories, and a minimum rate of $3 per year for any service.

The Independent labor party of Kingston, branch No. 1, practically the former labor party under a new name and in the majority, and three wards in the approaching elections.

A meeting was held last night, but it was decided to adjourn until Friday evening, before deciding as to who their candidates should be. A labor leader said to-day that they intended to hold the election job until they are victorious, as the labor men feel they have as much right to say who will represent them as the bourgeoisie or Tories.

Scarlet fever is still spreading. There are now at least 11 cases in the general hospital, and one outside. The patients are nearly all children, and apparently the disease is contracted at school.

ARRESTED AT THE 500 FOR BIGAMY AT OTTAWA

Other Serious Charges May Be Preferred Against the Fashionably Dressed Man.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Police Capt. Henry Coulter arrested J. F. Laverne, of Lange, at the Fountain House, Michigan St., last night. He was turned over to Chief of Police Downey of the Canadian Soo, and will be sent to Ottawa to answer a charge of bigamy. Local officers were notified of the case by Chief of Police S. E. Delaband, Ottawa, and the man was identified from a picture. It is also believed by the police that he was connected with a diamond robbery in New York City recently.

It is said Lange claimed he intended to purchase the Grand View Hotel, in the Canadian Soo, and that he won the heart of a young lady of the Algoma town and intended to marry her.

When taken to police headquarters he was attired in ultra-fashionable wearing apparel and appeared to be a man of property. He promptly asserted his innocence and demanded a lawyer. The police ransacked his pockets and brought to light 45 cents, which, so far as they were able to learn, was all the money he had. Chief Swart told him he intended to notify the police of New York of his arrest and he then consented to go to the Canadian Soo.

A search of Lange's pockets revealed a large number of letters, addressed to him by women, most of them being marked Duluth, Calgary and Hancock. Chief Swart received a telegram this afternoon from the chief of police at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., in which a message said his name is Laverne. He requested that the prisoner be asked whether he was doing any business without legal proceedings being instituted, or prefer to go to Ogdensburg, N. Y., or New York City. From this it is believed the charges in New York State, alleged to have been made against the man, are of a serious nature.

Lashing Prisoners at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Nov. 26.—There are a couple of prisoners, recently sentenced to penitentiary, to receive the lash at the Kingston penitentiary for criminal offences. One of these was expected from Toronto to-day. The lashing of the prisoners, unlike in the city of Toronto, is not done by the still quite severe, and a man has to be examined by the prison physician before he is permitted to undergo physical punishment. If the physician deems him incapable of standing it, the lashing does not take place.
