

While the bell of St. John's Roman Catholic cathedral, where the funeral services were held, was tolling, thousands of persons stood with bare heads as the body of Chapman, who died in New York last Tuesday, a victim of a pitched tall there Monday, was carried to the altar and the last rites of the church were said. It was the largest funeral in Cleveland in years, and not since the visit here of Cardinal Mercier, hero of Belgium, has such a mass of people at-tempted to enter the cathedral.

Thousands Gather.

Long before the services started thousands of persons congregated in the vicinity of the church awaiting the arrival of the casket, and unable to gain admission to the building. Tears were in the eyes of men, women and children in the throng, which was so dense that mounted police and patrolmen strove almost in vain to-keep streets open to traffic.

The service, a solemn, high requiem mass, was started at 10.15. Reverend Father W. S. Nash was the celebrant, and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. William A. Scullen, chancellor of the diocese, who paid Chapman an eloquent tributé.

Chapman's widow, a bride of ten months, leaning on the arm of her father, entered the church immediately after the casket, which was borne by Chapman's closest friends on the team and in Cleveland. The bail player's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chapman, his brother Roy, and sister Margaret, followed.

B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, and James C. Dunn, president of the Cleveland team, were among the first to reach the church. Several other club offcials and players were present, including three from the New York Americans.

√ Speaker Collapsed. The members of the Cleveland team arrived from New York this morning to attend the funeral, today's game at Boston having been postponed. Manager Tris Speaker and Outfielder Jack Graney collapsed and could not attend the services. Graney had recovered sufficiently. however, to leave for Boston tonight with the team. Speaker had a high fever tonight and did not go east. He may leave tomorrow.

The Cleveland players, on arriving. went to the home of M. B. Daly, Chapman's father-in-law, and viewed the body of their fellow-player. They accompanied the funeral party to the church in automobiles and marched in pairs into the cathedral. Some of the players were accompanied by Mayor W. S. Fitzgerald was ab-sent from the city today, but Law Director Woods, acting mayor, sev-eral members of the mayor's cabinet and several city council men attended the service.

At the conclusion of the church service the body was placed in a cemetery vault. It has not been decided when Chapman will be buried. The crowd gathered about the cathedral at the end of the services was even larger than the one when the funeral party arrived. Street cars were halted for several blocks and traffic was completely tied up.

MAYS IS NERVOUS.

New York, Aug. 20.—While the fu-neral of Ray Chapman, shortstop on the Cleveland Americans, fatally injured here last Monday by a ball pitched by Carl Mays of the New York Club, was being held today in Cleveland, Mays was lying in his home here, suffering from a nervous breakdown. This became known this morning when an official of the Yankees appeared in traffic court and pleading guilty for Mays to a charge of speeding last month, paid a $25 fine. Mays has not played since resumption of the New York-Cleveland series, nor has he been seen at the Polo grounds.

CARL MAYS MAY NEVER PITCH AGAIN

Cleveland, Aug. 20.—No official action antagonistic to Carl Mays, the New York American League player, who pitched the ball Monday which resulted in Ray Chapman's death, will be taken by Fresident Ban B Johnson of the American League. The case is ended, as far as he is concerned. Johnson de-clared here today. "I could not con-scientiously attempt to make any trouble for Mr. Mays. Johnson said, "but it is my honest belief that Mr. Mays will never pitch again. From what I have learned, he is greatly affected, and may never the capable 'temperamentally of pitching against him to be so bitter among the members of other teams that it would be inadvisable for him to attempt the members of other teams that it would be inadvisable for him to attempt in pitch this year, at any rate."

At Wingham yesterday, Hanover won the junior Ontario Lacrosse Association group honors of that district by defeat-ing Wingham, 7 to 3.
