The motion was carried.

Mr. Hunter who, when a boy, was an inmate of the Home, addressed a few remarks to those present. He referred to the kind manner in which he had been treated when in the Home, and now that he had left it he cherished the warmest feelings towards all connected therewith.

A hearty hand clapping on the part of the boys showed the approval with which they greeted the remarks of one who had once been one of themselves.

Votes of thanks were then tendered the officers and friends of the Home, and to the Mayor for presiding, after which there was another song by the children and prayer by Rev. Mr. Cayley. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.
