

AN IMPROVEMENT IN LAW.—The following clause has been added to the Bill "for the more effectual administration of Justice in England and Wales."

BRONZE COLOSSAL ELEPHANT: PARIS.—The enormous bronze elephant, which was originally intended to be placed as a fountain on the site of the Bastille in Paris, is now, it seems, to be fixed on a pedestal, in a vacant space in the Champs Elysees.

On Monday week the anniversary of the Printers' Pension Society was celebrated at the London Tavern, in Bishopsgate-street.

Application is about to be made to Parliament to prevent travelling on Sundays. The proprietors of the Portsmouth and Southampton coaches agree to discontinue running on the Sabbath-day, provided no opposition coaches are allowed to start.

We have been informed that the week before last not less than one hundred and fifty tons of Yorkshire clothes were despatched to Canada, from the port of London, in one ship, to be smuggled into the United States.

PROSPECTUS. Ready for the Press, and will be Published when a sufficient number of Subscribers can be procured: A GRAMMAR OF THE HINDIA INDIAN LANGUAGE. Compiled by THOMAS LEWIS. "This Grammar rather appears to have been formed by Philosophers in their closets, than by Saages in the wild career."—DISSONANCE. CONDITIONS.—The work will be printed on fine paper, with a neat type; consisting of nearly 300 pages, and price 3s.—to be paid on the delivery of the Books. As the Compiler is actuated by no mercenary motive in publishing this work, but is induced solely by a wish to serve the unfortunate yet interesting remains of the Aborigines of these Provinces, he hopes a generous and benevolent public will aid his feeble yet well-meaning endeavours. He also hopes the Editors of Newspapers published in the British Provinces will be so kind as to give this insertion in their respective Journals, and transmit him the names of such Subscribers as may offer in their vicinity. He confidently hopes the Catholic Clergy of these Colonies will cheerfully aid the publication of a work particularly designed for them, and by means of which they may be able to serve with effect this too long neglected portion of Christ's flock. Charlotte Town, (Pr. Ed. Island), June 1.
