BOWLING.
Y. M. C. I. Celebrates Victory.
An informal gathering of the members of the Y. M. C. I. was held in Bond's on Saturday night in honor of the victorious bowling team of the institute which carried off the premier honors at the championship meeting at Calais last week. John Keefe, president of the Y. M. C. I., was in the chair. Following an inviting report, the toast to the King was the first on the programme. The toast to the Y. M. C. I. was proposed by T. T. Lantulum and was responded to by George V. McGee, captain of the team.
The event of the evening was the presentation of initiated pins emblematic of the victory to each member of the team.

"POTS and PANS PEGGY"
With GLADYS HULETTE as Peggy McGraw, a Dainty Slip of the Auld Sod Scattering Sunshine All the While

Some of the Sub-titles Give an Idea of the Worth of This Sterling Subject:
"Aw cheer up. I don't think any millionaire will propose to ye."
"Some people are like fancy china, made to sit around and be pretty, but I'm one of the pots and pans persons made to be useful."
"Taxi Barney has been summoned to drive Peggy all the way from the back door to the front door."
"Just when I got all the holes covered, some limb of a Satan moves the chairs."
"Shure, Missus, it isn't cookies and milk that give him a headache in the morning."
"Come back at five and ye'll have the pleasure of drivin' me and me baggage away from me work."
"Just cryin', for it will take more than this to make an angel of Peggy McGraw."

SEE "POTS AND PANS PEGGY" and if you don't say it's one of the most delightful stories ever pictured, we miss our guess. Produced by Thanhouser Co. under the Gold Rooster Banner.

ROUGH LEADS IN NATIONAL LEAGUE
Cincinnati Player Has High Percentage; Speaker Still Ahead in American League
Chicago, April 28.—With 20 hits—four of them three-baggers—to his credit in 12 games, Roush of Cincinnati is out in front for batting honors in the National League, according to unofficial averages, including games of last Wednesday, announced on Saturday.
Jack Smith of St. Louis and Griffith of Cincinnati, however, who have played in fewer games than Roush, are battling for the lead in club batting. Smith has made only six trips to the plate and Griffith 12 as against 42 for the Cincinnati player.
Roush and Cravath of Philadelphia are tied for total base hitting, with 28 each and Cravath and Hornsby of St. Louis are fighting it out for home run honors, with three apiece. Betzel of St. Louis and Zeider of Chicago are topping the base stealers with four and Larry Doyle of Chicago is leading in sacrifice hitting with five. Burns of New York and Heine Grob of Cincinnati are tied at 11 in runs scored.

DETROIT TIGERS ARE A STRONG TEAM
Jennings Has Only His Pitching Staff to Worry About This Season
If Hughie Jennings develops a couple of strong young pitchers who can stand the gauntlet in the American league, look out for those Bengals this summer. All Jennings is worrying about is his pitching staff. But he is going to make a valiant effort to put the right kind of props under it. The spring training camp of the Tigers was largely a school for young hurlers.
Jennings took about 15 pitchers to the camp of the Tigers. Of this number six will be veterans unless he pulls off a deal or two in the meantime. Dauss, Coveleskie, Boland, James, Cunningham and Auten from Portsmouth, Flanagan from Muscatine, Watson from Denison, Tex., and a couple of young semipro hurlers named Acten and Swartz, Ethnik and Couch are expected to make good, and if reports Jennings gets on some of the remaining youngsters are true, he may have an abundance of talent.
Developing the youngsters successfully will mean much to Jennings. He has the foundation for a good staff in his veterans and if he can get two who are capable of facing major league batting out of his recruits he will be satisfied and then some.
It was largely the fact that the Tigers were outpitched in crucial series late last season that kept them from making a stronger finish of the race with Boston. Not that they didn't figure strong, but that they would have shown to much better advantage had they been getting the bang-up pitching that such a race demanded. This year Jennings is

MAY FORM AUDUBON CLUB
Mrs. J. V. Ellis, convener of the Bird House committee was in charge of the birdhouse exhibition in the Natural History museum Saturday afternoon, and Mrs. John A. McAvity, president of the women's society, presided at the exercises.
William McIntosh, curator of the museum, advocated the organization of an Audubon club for the city and those in favor of the plan will meet soon. Prizes for the competition were awarded as follows:
The first of the thirteen awards went to Donald Young, of 9 Harding street, who picked the set of tools the second, advancing the closing hour on Saturday night from 11 p. m. to 10 p. m.

who chose a camera, and the third to one of the three girls who had entered the contest, Florence Trentowsky, who also picked a camera. The remaining prize winners in order of merit were: Harry Fowler, Fred Smith, Herbert Peterson, William Maynes, C. J. Briscoe, Fred Trites, Charles Wakeham, Ralph Kee, William Trentowsky, and Wylie Turner. The twelfth prize fell to Herbert Peterson, but as he already had taken sixth place, was not qualified to take another.

A meeting of the journeymen barbers in the city was held in the Oddfellows' hall yesterday. The two main points under discussion were a slight increase of pay, the minimum remaining fixed at $13 per week, and slightly shorter hours, advancing the closing hour on Saturday night from 11 p. m. to 10 p. m.
