a small increase for the work of the Agricultural Department. In company with other business men in Saint John he was impressed with the necessity for greater development of this important industry. New Brunswick was importing largely of foodstuffs while she was admirably adapted for producing many times her own requirements.

CROP FAILURES PARTIAL.

Complete crop failures were unknown and in 1920 New Brunswick had only reports of partial failures from .23 per cent of the farms, while the average for all Canada was 5.5 per cent. She was in that year the lowest of any province in Canada. There was every opportunity for development. He was glad to know the agricultural commission was investigating the work of the department and he felt sure that under the able guidance of the Minister of Agriculture and with the co-operation of the businessmen of the province great developments would accrue.

TOURIST GRANT.

The preceding speaker (Michaud) had objected to the increased grant to the tourist association, although his estimate of getting $100,000 from this traffic in return for $5,000 invested seemed pretty good. He (Harrison) believed that in the next few years the returns would be counted in the millions. Last year it was stated in an official booklet that the State of Maine had received the almost incredible sum of $83,000,000 from tourist traffic. With New Brunswick's superior attractions of scenery and sport, he saw no reason why it should not get a very large revenue from this source.

GRANT IS CONDITIONAL.

It should be remembered in connection with this grant that it was conditional on the association raising an equal amount and that the money was all to be spent outside the province for advertising purposes.

In conclusion he said that this budget marked an epoch in that it was an attempt to show the people exactly where the provincial finances stood. For the lost nine years there had been an average annual deficit of $381,000, and yet the fact had never been stated, but the people had been deceived by the budgets that failed to recognize unavoidable liabilities. He believed that the days of wildcatting provincial moneys and expending funds unauthorized by this legislature were past.

"We are not financing for this year alone, but for our children," he said, and he believed that they and their children would be glad this government had had the courage to bring down this policy and save the province for them.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo, which is pure and greaseless, and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.

Mrs. Parks Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health

Toronto, Ontario. — "My daughter is 16 now and has been an invalid ever since she was six months old and has been compelled to remain out of school the greater part of the time. We have tried different kinds of medicine, but none helped her much. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I was run-down, and it had helped me so much that I thought it might help her at this time. She has gained ever since she began taking it. She attends school every day now and goes skating, and does other out-of-door sports. I recommend this medicine to any one who is run-down and nervous and weak."—Mrs. PARKS, 106 Bond Street, Toronto, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for young women's troubles.
