PLENTY TO EAT
BUT NO MONEY

This is Peculiar Situation at Vladivostok — Country Few Miles Away Tells Different Story.

Tokio, March 1—(Associated Press by Mail)—Residents of Vladivostok have plenty to eat and plenty of clothes but no money, according to a correspondent of the Kokusai News Agency, who has just returned from that city.

"Good beer can be purchased for twenty cents a pound," he says, and continues: "A good suit of clothes costs about one-third what they do in America and other things in proportion. The only thing the people lack is money to spend. Coin has virtually disappeared from circulation and nobody will accept the paper notes. Wages, even government employees, are paid in food, clothes and tickets for use with the public utilities.

"The plenitude of these necessities explained by the fact that huge stores have been imported into Vladivostok by shipment into the interior and are being held there indefinitely. These stores are being drawn upon.

"A few miles out of Vladivostok

the north conditions are very different. There the population has neither money nor supplies, and hunger has taken liberal tolls of the Russians. The Chita authorities have been sending clamorous demands that Vladivostok share her supplies with the rest of the Far East, a call to which the local authorities have shown no disposition to respond even if the Japanese would let them.

"These latter have been taking advantage of the fact that Japan cannot stand that until it is certain that Japan will not have to fight Chita they will permit the exportation of anything that may later be used against the Japanese forces.

"The lack of acceptable money in Vladivostok is resulting in business stagnation. Anyone with good money can buy anything he wants and cheaply, but in its absence nothing can be sold. Business houses are fast closing their doors and factories are shutting down."

PHYSICIAN COURTS DRY INVESTIGATION

Dr. McCaskey, in Letter, Admits Prescribing Whisky Himself—Wants An Ear Hearing.

(New York Times.)
Dr. Donald McCaskey of 24 V
Fifty-ninth street, who has been se with an order to show cause before prohibition department here on Th

day why his permit to prescribe liquor was not renewed, yesterday wrote another letter to Federal Prohibition Director Charles R. O'Connor in which he asked for help in obtaining whiskey to help him. He had previously admitted he had violated the regulation of the department limiting the quantity of whiskey to be prescribed to one pint in ten days. Dr. McCaskey urges prompt action on his case and intimates that he will be forced to leave the state if he is not permitted to take his medicine. "Your action cannot be prompt to suit me," Dr. McCaskey wrote. In a letter of whiskey prohibition manager complaining of the refusal of Mr. O'Connor to issue his new prescription book, Mr. McCaskey said Mr. O'Connor "has been very harsh." Dr. McCaskey's letter to Dr. O'Connor yesterday was in reply to one asking for information of a violation of the physician's violation of regulation.

"If this must go higher and ultimately into congress—let's play ball and a clean-cut show down," says McCaskey in his letter.

"There is nothing personal in fight. You simply challenged me to it. Instead of helping me to go about it. If this is the only crucible in which to boil down this liquor prescription interpretation for the American physician why it is simply a case of let's go till congress adjusts things, but meanwhile, why won't you help the man?"

"Yes. I have prescribed for my patient. For three months last was toxic from a pyorrhea abscess the left lower jaw. Dr. Dunning requiring two tablespoons of pus. If you the same condition, with intimate knowledge of law, and you needed I would your legal or you common judgment prevail, if you were not a prohibitionist?"

"Please help me or else expedite legal punishment under the Volstead act, and please don't consider this a cheap, smart fellow's fight."

Detectives Meehan and Ramirez, speaking for Boettler's staff, early yesterday morning arrested William H. Barnes, secretary and treasurer of the Pre-Cat Club, Inc., in Thirty-ninth street, near Broadway, and Lewis Garcia, a waiter in place, on charges of violating the stand act. Barnes and Garcia were taken to the West Thirtieth street police station. The detectives said that they entered the restaurant with a woman called for and were served with meals by Garcia. The check was for $9.80.

Dominion Archivist, W. C. Milner of Halifax the Speaker — Resolutions Favoring Restoration Unanimously Passed by Club.

(Amherst News) _____
The Commercial Club of Amherst unanimously went on record yesterday a-favoring the preservation of Forts Cumberland and Monckton. The meeting which was one of the largest held this year was ably addressed by W. C. Milner of the Canadian Archives Depart-

Mr. Milner, a fond student of history, noted with regret at the outset of his remarks that there is no history of Nova Scotia in common use in this country. "Travel over our country," said the speaker, "and you will find that ninety-nine out of every one hundred houses have no authentic historical work. The younger generation is growing up with practically no knowledge of the past. It is interesting to consider that the Maritime Provinces are the richest part of North America in historical lore, that the rising generation should have a true knowledge of our past. Without such they can have no true value of the country or its institutions."

Mr. Milner stated that in the Maritime Provinces there were twenty six historical sites that ought to be marked by monuments. Such places as Annapolis Royal, Fort-Edward at Windsor, Louisburg and Fort Cumberland should be preserved as ancient fortresses. There are over twenty other historical sites,—places where important incidents or actions have taken place. The places ought to be marked by monuments bearing tablets such as would record the events.

Premier's Approval.

In 1913 Mr. Milner stated that he had brought these matters to the attention of the Federal Government. In response to the then Premier, Sir Robert Borden replied, stating that he approved of the suggestions. The Premier had copies of Mr. Milner's memorial sent to the various cabinet ministers. Indeed, it was especially the Minister of Finance, upon whom was developed the duty of dealing with the matter. The outbreak of war prevented action until about two years ago when the historical sites monument board was instituted by order in council. This board was
