RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Catherine Roden.
The death occurred at 9 o'clock on Saturday evening at her home, 103 Pitt street, of Mrs. Catherine Elizabeth Roden, widow of Benjamin Roden, a former prominent contractor of this city. The late Mrs. Roden is survived by three daughters, Annie, wife of J. M. True-man, and the Misses Jennie and Florence at home. The late Mrs. Roden was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Pratt, of St. John. All five of her brothers are living, Henry J., of this city; Andrew M., of Cambridge (Mass.); Captain John H., of New York, who has just reached home from Europe; Edward F., of Dorchester (Mass.); and Albert, of Easthampton (Mass.). Miss C. A. Pratt, is a sister. Captain C. M. Pratt, M.D., and Henry M. Pratt, of the post office staff, are nephews. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon from 103 Pitt street. Service at 2:30 o'clock and funeral at 3.

Mrs. Edwin M. Stevens.
Many friends in St. John will hear with deep regret of the sudden death of Mrs. Edwin B. Stevens, of Boston, at her summer home at Crescent Beach (Conn.). Mrs. Stevens was suddenly stricken with spinal meningitis and passed away on Sunday. She was a daughter of Mrs. C. A. Gillis, of Brookville, and leaves to mourn her loss her husband, her mother, two sisters, Miss Jennie Gillis, and Mrs. Walter G. Drake, of Brookville, and one brother, Ora B. Gillis, of Beverly (Mass.). Before marriage Mrs. Stevens was a nurse, having graduated from Hartford Hospital. The funeral will take place on Tuesday at Niantic (Conn.).

Miss Margarette E. Otty.
After an illness of about three months the death of Miss Margarette E. Otty occurred at Langstroth, Hampton, on August 18. Miss Otty was a daughter of the late Major R. W. and Hannah Otty, and there are left to mourn their loss one brother, Norval Otty, of Gagetown, and two sisters, Mrs. Albert Barnes, of Hampton, and Mrs. Thomas Bain, of St. John. The news of Miss Otty's death will be heard with great regret by many friends and sincere sympathy is extended to her bereaved relatives. The funeral will be held on

Lemon Juice For Freckles

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quart pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.
Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It

WINTER IS COMING.

(Illustration by courtesy of National War Garden Commission, Washington)
Winter may seem like a far cry from the middle of August but time speeds fast and those who delay in making their preparations will find themselves snowed-out—with empty cellars and contrite hearts. It will be too late then to do any storing. The time to get ready is—now. Is your cellar in shape for storage? If not, get busy according to the following directions:
(1) Select a suitable portion of your cellar.
(2) Board it off from the rest of the cellar.
(3) Cover the boards with felt paper. Do it on both sides of the partition to exclude the artificial heat from the furnace.
(4) Provide a false floor for part of this room.
(5) Nail a few slats on one of the walls.
(6) Build a few bins one one side of the room.
(7) Provide a few hooks in the ceiling.
(8) Order a load of builders' sand and store it in one of the bins.
(9) Provide a few flat boxes and old bags.

Food Board Flashes For Feminine Folk

Are you keeping down your personal consumption of sugar? And, furthermore, are you getting into the habit of using brown sugar wherever possible? The reason for this is in order to get the most efficient economic results from the refining of sugar about 80 per cent of yellow sugar has to be produced along with the white.
The British sugar ration is 2 pounds a month. In France it is about 1 pound a month and in Italy 10 ounces. In view of this, it should be an easy matter for Canadians to keep strictly to what is asked of them.

TWO DAUGHTERS OF N. C. SCOTT DIE IN AUTO ACCIDENT

City Shocked by News of Tragedy
Near New Glasgow on Saturday

St. John citizens were shocked on Saturday night when word was received here that Mrs. Warren Ogilvie and Mrs. Penwick C. Bonnell, daughters of N. C. Scott of Douglas avenue, had been killed in an automobile accident near New Glasgow on Saturday. The accident occurred when the chauffeur of the car in an endeavor to prevent a collision with another automobile swerved to one side and went over an embankment twenty feet high. Mrs. Ogilvie was killed instantly and Mrs. Bonnell lived only a few minutes.

The party, which consisted of Mrs. Ogilvie, Mrs. Bonnell, four women friends and the chauffeur, left New Glasgow after lunch on Saturday and started on a trip to Little Harbor. While proceeding along a narrow winding country road at a moderate rate of speed they came upon another car owned by P. E. Notebart and driven by his chauffeur, Thomas McNaughton. Both cars were swerved by the Ogilvie auto plunged into the ravine with the occupants. The chauffeur and the four other women were critically injured, but escaped serious injury. An inquest was held in New Glasgow yesterday and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death. The road was but twelve feet wide.
The news that Mrs. P. C. Bonnell and Mrs. Ogilvie, both daughters of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Scott, Dougan avenue, had been killed, came as a very great shock to their many friends in St. John. Mrs. Ogilvie, before taking up her residence in Truro, was prominent in social circles in St. John, and Mrs. Bonnell, beloved by all who knew her, a most willing worker in patriotic and social circles. They are both survivors of all kinds and also prominent socially.
Mrs. Ogilvie is survived by her husband and one daughter, Margaret, while Mrs. Bonnell has children, a son and a daughter. Mrs. Bonnell's father, Frank S. Scott, of Morrisons' Limited, Amherst; Sergeant A. Gordon Scott, now overseas; and Dr. Scott, associated with his father in business in this city, and a Harold Scott, of The William Thomson Co., Ltd., here.

On learning of the disastrous accident Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Scott, the parents, left immediately for Truro, as also did Dr. Bonnell, who is heart-broken over the accident. Ralph Bonnell also accompanied the sad party to Truro. Mrs. Ogilvie will be buried in Truro on Tuesday night's train, and the funeral will be held on Wednesday, so far as the immediate relatives were informed last night. Mrs. Ogilvie was in St. John on Friday en route to his home after completing a most extensive buying trip for his company. Mrs. Bonnell had been visiting her sister in Truro but a few days before the accident occurred.

POWER BOAT CLUB SERVICE
Nearly two hundred boats gaily decorated and hovering about Belyea's Point in the bright summer sunshine was the fitting stage setting for the St. John Power Boat Club's annual service of intercession which took place at that point on the river yesterday morning at 11 o'clock.
Boats of every kind and description were there, and before the Temple of Honor Band struck the first bar of the opening selection a wonderful congregation of about 2000 people was present. Adjacent to the dais from which Rev. Craig Nichols delivered the oration was packed.
Rev. Mr. Nichols took as his subject "Other Little Shins."
