

second witness
for prosecution.

P.O. 83 (P) has been compiled with the witness with draws Lieut. John Lazen, Canadian Infantry Corps being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecution.

On the 31st of Dec. 1941, I was in command of a training Coy of the Can. Inf. Corps.
I went to Drill Hall 255 where I heard Major Rogers read a draft warning order in French and English.
I witnessed the signatures of each man in the draft and the accused, here present was there then, and signed this warning order.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer

Q. 3

Do you know personally the accused to identify him in a group of men?

A. 3

Yes, Sir.

Q. 4

Did you see him on the very day and at the time when the warning order was read in Drill Hall 255?

A. 4

The number of men who were in the Drill Hall at that particular time was too great to see any individual, but I saw him and recognized him signing the draft warning order, which I witnessed.

Q. 5

How long did it take between the reading of the warning order and the signing of it?
