

Terms of Indenture of the Girls' Home.

Parties taking a child from the Home are required to provide the said child, during the whole period of service—viz., till the child is eighteen years of age—with all necessary and proper food, clothing, lodging, medicine, and medical attendance, to bring her up in the principles of the Protestant religion, to pay due attention to her moral and spiritual culture, and to allow her to attend Sunday-School, and place of worship regularly, to instruct the child in reading, writing and plain needle-work, and in general household duties, to pay into the Home, in advance, the sum of five dollars, which goes to the general funds of the Institution; and at the end of the first, and each year of service until the child attains the age of fourteen, the sum of five dollars; when fifteen, ten dollars; when sixteen, fifteen dollars; when seventeen, twenty dollars; which money is deposited by the Board for the child's benefit; and further, to provide the said child at the expiration of her term of service with a good new suit of clothes. In case, through protracted illness or death, or any other cause, the parties fail to carry out their various obligations, the Management reserves to itself the right of resuming their control over the child, or of taking such measures to secure her rights as they may deem necessary.

In case the parties taking a child shall not be satisfied with her, they have the power of returning her to the Home, after satisfying the Board that such action would be to the interest of all concerned.
