Newfoundland Notice to Mariners No. 14—1914.

Burnt Islands District of Burgeo—South West Coast

Latitude 47° 28' 30" N.
Longitude 58° 53' 00" W.

Notice is hereby given that two Red Lights have been placed on Great Burnt Island for the guidance of fishing craft of that harbour.

Structures—Wood, square in plan with sloping sides, 15 feet high from base to centre of light.
Colour—Both towers painted with two red and two white horizontal bands, lanterns white.

Remarks—Lights will be put in operation during month of January, 1915, without further notice.

M. E.—Burnt Islands Harbour affords good and sheltered anchorage for vessels of moderate size, but even with a small vessel no stranger should attempt to enter without a pilot. For the channels are not easily distinguished from seaward, and the numerous rocks give but little room for manoeuvring.

A Good Investment $1.00 ONLY

Every young man and young woman should have a copy of Dr. Stall's

Self and Sex Books

They cost only $1.00 a copy. It will be the best investment you have ever made. Read what the Rev. F. B. Meyer, B. A., of London, England, has to say regarding these books:

"The questions which are dealt with in the 'Self and Sex Series' of books are always being asked and if the answer is not forthcoming from pure and wise lips it will be obtained through vicious and empirical channels. I therefore greatly commend this series of books, which are written lucidly and purely, and will afford the necessary information without pandering to unholy and sensual passions. I should like to see a wide and judicious distribution of this literature among Christian circles."

Public Notice

Censorship of Telegraphs, Cables, and Wireless Stations.

By direction of the Chief Censor, London, the following Regulations will be in force on and after Friday next, January 15th, namely:

1. Cablegrams in authorized editions of A.B.C. Lieber's, Scott's and Western Union Codes only may be exchanged between British, Allied or Neutral Territory on extra European Telegraph System, on one side, and British or Allied Territory, wherever situated, on the other side.

2. The term "Extra European Telegraph System" means the places outside the Telegraph System of Europe. Besides the places in Europe proper, the following are also counted as being on the European Telegraph System, namely:—Russia and Asia; the following French possessions in North and West Africa, namely:—Algeria, Mauritania, Senegal, Upper Senegal and Niger; and French Morocco. The island of Cyprus is regarded as outside the European Telegraph System.

3. Until further notice cablegrams in the following three Codes, namely:—Meyer's Atlantic Cotton Code, Thirty-ninth Edition; Bentley's Complete Phrase Code, not including separate Mining and Oil Supplements; Broomhall's Imperial Combination Code, not including Special Rubber Edition are allowed only between United Kingdom and places in Extra European Telegraph System.

N.B.—As all messages sent under the above Regulations have to be decoded and censored the carrying out of this work will be greatly facilitated if persons sending such messages would hand in at the Telegraph Office, at the time of presenting the message, the translation of the same.

Official Exposure of German Brutality

Atrocities of Huns Proved to British Commission

Women Mutilated and Baby Bayoneted

(Lloyd's Weekly News, May 16.)

The report of the British Committee appointed to inquire into German outrages just issued is a terrible indictment of a nation.

The Report—signed by men of such authority as Lord Bryce, Sir Frederick Pollock, K. C., Sir Edward Clarke, K. C., Sir Alfred Hopkinson, K. C., Sir Kenneth Digby, K. C., Mr. H. L. Fisher (Vice-Chancellor of Sheffield University), and Mr. Harold Cox—shows that the truthfulness alleged has been proved to the hilt.

The Committee, indeed, definitely declare it to be proved:—That there were, in many parts of Belgium, deliberate and systematic organised massacres of the civil population, accompanied by many isolated murders and other outrages.

That in the conduct of the war generally innocent civilians, both men and women, were murdered in large numbers, women violated, and children murdered.

That looting, house burning, and the wanton destruction of property were ordered and countenanced by the officers of the German Army, that elaborate provision was made for the systematic and systematic burning and destruction were frequent, where no military necessity could be alleged, being, indeed, part of a system of general terrorism.

That the rules and usages of war were frequently broken, particularly by the using of civilians, including women and children, as a shield for advancing forces exposed to fire, to a lesser degree by killing the wounded and prisoners, and in the frequent abuse of the Red Cross and the White Flag.

The Report proceeds:—Sensible as they are of the gravity of these conclusions, the Committee conceive that they would be doing less than their duty if they failed to record them as fully established by the evidence.

Murder, lust, and pillage prevailed over many parts of Belgium on a scale unparalleled in any war between civilised nations during the last three centuries.

RECORD OF HORROR.
The greater part of the report is a grim narrative of the actual incidents of savagery proved by the evidence to have occurred. The following extracts are typical:—

At Herve some fifty men escaping from the burning houses were seized, taken outside the town, and shot.
At Malen forty men were shot. In one household, the father and mother were shot, the daughter died after being repeatedly outraged, and the son was wounded.

Over 300 houses were burnt at Herve, while mounted men shot into doors and windows to prevent the escape of the inhabitants.

Vice was completely destroyed. Officers directed the incendiaries. Antiques and china were removed from the houses, before their destruction, by officers, who guarded the plunderer in hand.

German soldiers gave themselves up to debauchery in the streets of Liege, and on the night of Aug. 20 a massacre took place in the streets. Long before the shooting a citizen was warned by a friendly German soldier not to go out that night.

At Pepinster, two witnesses were seized as hostages and were threatened, together with five others, that unless they could discover a civilian who was alleged to have shot a soldier in the leg they would be shot themselves.

One of the hostages convinced the officer that the alleged shooting, if it took place at all, took place in the commune of Cornesse and not that of Pepinster, whereupon the Burgomaster of Cornesse, who was old and very deaf, was shot forthwith.

In Malines a witness saw a German soldier cut a woman's breasts after he had murdered her, and saw many other dead bodies of women in the streets.

On a side road at Hofstade the corpse of a civilian was seen on his doorstep with a bayonet wound in his stomach, and by his side the dead body of a boy of five or six with his hands nearly severed.

Two young women were lying in the back yard of the house. One had her breasts cut off, the other had been stabbed.

A young man had been backed with the bayonet until his entrails protruded. He also had his hands joined in the attitude of prayer.

In Sempt the corpse of a man with his legs cut off, who was partly bound, was seen; No a girl of seventeen. She alleged that she and other girls had been dragged into a field, stripped naked and violated, and that some of them had been killed with the bayonet. Two children were bayoneted in Weerde as they were standing in the road with their mother. They were three or four years old. A small farm burning close by formed a convenient means of getting rid of the bodies. They were thrown into the flames from the bayonets.

At Haecht a child of three with its stomach cut open by a bayonet was lying near a house.

BRITISH EVIDENCE.
There is abundant British evidence of atrocious German outrages upon women and children in Belgium and France. Thus, to quote some depositions of our soldiers:

At Basse Villa, in one particular house, we saw an old man by the fire-side strangled; an old woman in a bed in a room off the kitchen, who seemed to have been strangled. In an orchard we found a young girl of about fifteen or seventeen; her dress was opened, and a bayonet in her heart. Both breasts had been cut off.

I came into a village called Wytschete. I went into a house. A woman and two children were in the house. They belonged to it. The woman was thirty-five. She said her husband and a son had been killed in action. She said the Germans had been to her house, and had taken most of her possessions, including money, and had knocked her furniture about. She and practically every woman in the village had been maltreated.

In a yard I saw the dead bodies of two women, one forty to fifty, the other about twenty. Their clothes were up above their heads, and the lower parts of their bodies, from the waist down, exposed to view. There were no wounds on either body, and it appeared plain to me that the women had died as the result of violence by the Germans, who had just left the place.

Germany's policy of assassination—as revealed by the above report of the committee over which Viscount Bryce presided—holds America appalled. Seething and passionate denunciations occupy columns of the New York Press, the tone of which may be gathered from headings of which the following in the "Evening Sun" are a fair example:—

"Beyond the Pale."
"The Beast Has Lapped Blood."
"The Super-Brute."
"Germany Revealed."
"Now We Know."
"Let Us Now Act."

Tim says to be sure that the old hen is ready before you try to set her. The same way about courting a girl—don't rush her.
Poor Richard's, "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," cannot be taken literally, because the bird in the hand is usually dead. A dead bird catches none of the worms and insects which destroy the farmer's crops.

FIRST LONG STEP TOWARDS RECOVERY

Is to Find if Your Symptoms are of Kidney Disease

Kent County Lady Did This—
Then She Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and Was Cured.

Upper Bonetouche, Kent Co., N. B., May 31st, (Special).—Miss Genevieve Bastarache, an estimable lady living near here, is telling her friends of the benefit she has received from Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I am indeed happy to be able to state that I have been cured of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills," Miss Bastarache says in an interview.

"I was often so feeble I could not work. My sleep was broken and unrefreshing, I had headaches and cramps in the muscles.

"I suffered from Rheumatism and Backache and was always tired and nervous.

"I was in this miserable condition when I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills and I had not taken two boxes till I felt better and three boxes cured me."

Miss Bastarache made a long step towards recovery when she discovered that her symptoms were of Kidney Disease. She then had only to use the old reliable Kidney remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills, to find a cure. She did it and was cured. Are your symptoms those of Kidney Disease?
