THE GREAT VICE Our present industrial affairs are based on profit, yet we find the workers' motto is "No profit," also the buying public are crying no profit.

GOOD FRIDAY. See Him hang from the tree, Christ, the friend of you and me, Watch Him suffer, bleed and die For coming men like you and I.

AM-ON-GOES UP. Under our present industrial customs, as we must be another good down, We believe that Edward Bellamy was right when he said, "No true man should wish to rise save to raise others with him."

NOT A SYSTEM. We find men talking to-day of our industrial system, and it is because our methods of production and distribution are becoming systematized that we are beginning to see the necessity of an industrial system of, by and for the people.

MEN ARE BROTHERS. Heaven, ye sons of Canada, Christ is calling to you, To sound forth His message of freedom In the land that is loved by you.

THE WAY IS BLOCKED. Not many years ago the servant in the cap of his master was stung by the thought that if he was very careful and industrious, some day he would be able to go into business for himself.
