

THE PASSAGE OF THE TUGELA

Almost the Whole of Buller's Force is Now on the North Bank of the River.

BOERS OPPOSED THE BRITISH ADVANCE

Driven From Their Position by Artillery—Warren Supposed to Be Near Action—Holmes—Roberts's Official Dispatch—Australians Ambushed.

(Associated Press.) London, Jan. 18.—The rumors from Ladysmith...

Buller's Advance. Though there are some discrepancies in the telegrams...

Heavy Fighting Expected. That the British advance on a northern direction will be heavily resisted is fully anticipated.

Near Acton Holmes. There is some doubt as to whether the Spieskop occupied by Gen. Warren is identical with Spieskop.

Boers Driven to the Hill. While Gen. Warren's force was crossing the Tugela River...

Immediately after the pontoon bridge was completed, the whole British force crossed.

IN NATAL. Crossing the Tugela River—One Brigade and Cavalry Battery on the North Side.

The Boers are so disheartened and demoralized that he predicts that a single big reverse would be followed by a general flight.

Warren hopes he will be able to turn the enemy's position, which is five miles off to his right.

London, Jan. 18.—A Capetown special...

wholesale dispersal of the Free State who are disgusted with the Transvaalers.

Dundonald's Advance. A Daily News dispatch from Spearman's Farm describes Lord Dundonald's advance to Swartzkop Hill.

It is difficult to trust to the efficiency of Portuguese control over goods passing through here to the Transvaal.

How Foreigners Reach the Boers. London, Jan. 18.—A correspondent of the Daily Mail at Lorenzo Marquez says:

The war office sent for Lord Strathcona on Tuesday, and he had a long interview with the officials.

THE ATTACK ON LADYSMITH. Garrison Surprised, and Several Times the Situation Was Critical—An Officer and Thirty Boer Highlanders Captured.

London, Jan. 18.—A dispatch from Ladysmith, dated Jan. 6th, by way of Freeburg, Jan. 17th, published in the Standard, says:

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—The militia department has received full instructions from Lord Strathcona regarding the organization of the high commissioner's contingent for South Africa.

London, Jan. 18.—The following dispatch from Spearman's Farm, dated Jan. 17th, 9:20 p. m., appears in the Times:

London, Jan. 18.—The correspondent of the Times at Lorenzo Marquez, telegraphing yesterday, says:

London, Jan. 18.—An exclusive dispatch to the Times says: General Buller completely surprised the Boers and occupied the hills beyond Potgieter's Drift.

London, Jan. 18.—The correspondent of the Times at Lorenzo Marquez, telegraphing yesterday, says:

London, Jan. 18.—The correspondent of the Times at Lorenzo Marquez, telegraphing yesterday, says:

"A Bit Shaky."

A man looks at his trembling hands and says: "I feel a bit shaky this morning, and shall need a bracer." His real need is not nerve-stimulant, but nerve-strength.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." It cures.

Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

THE BATTLE OF MAGERSFONTEIN. How the Highland Brigade Was Led to Within 50 Yards of the Boer Trenches—4,000 Dead and Wounded.

London, Jan. 17.—The Daily Mail's war correspondent thus depicts the way in which the disaster overtook the Highland Brigade at Magersfontein:

The enemy thereupon fell back precipitately, leaving behind the officer whom they had captured with so much presence of mind.

Onward to Death or Disaster. The accused wires caught them round the legs until they foundered like trapped wolves, and all the time the rick of the foe sang the song of death in their ears.

Draw the Enemy. Finally the Lanciers rode recklessly to the front and out their own.

When at 1:30 p. m. of Tuesday we drew off to Modder River to reassemble, we left nearly three thousand dead and wounded of grim old Cronje's men as a

THE BURIAL OF GEN. WAUCHOPE

Daily News Correspondent Tells of the Impressive Scenes by the Banks of the Modder.

London, Jan. 17.—The Daily News correspondent thus writes of the burial of Gen. Wauchope:

How grim and stern those men looked as they lay face upward to the sky, with great hands clenched in the last agony.

Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

THE MARCH OF DEATH. Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

THE MARCH OF DEATH. Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

THE MARCH OF DEATH. Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

THE MARCH OF DEATH. Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

THE MARCH OF DEATH. Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

THE MARCH OF DEATH. Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

THE MARCH OF DEATH. Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

THE MARCH OF DEATH. Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

THE MARCH OF DEATH. Right up to the grave they marched, then broke away in confusion, and the general lay in the shallow grave.

Wiv... An Imp... Officers... Last: a meeting... Wives' I... ized for... wives. I... ladies an... displayed... Major... Cpl. Gray... addressed... scheme a... a tiemen p... proceeded... the follo... Vice-pres... tary, Mr... Mrs. Pri... Fowler, a... Miss Pen... Hart. T... st: of M... Frank B... Drake an... It was... ing on... The fo... for local... The fo... A vice... eutive of... secretary... The vic... the offic... triet, or... The ge... officers' c... nected w... The ex... less than... of the w... mented... local bur... sergeant... senting e... members... committ... whom sh... The ch... eutive e... annual g... The w... officers' c... manes, a... eligible a... Honorar... by the O... those int... Canada... An an... cents sh... Honorar... any sum... An an... hold, as... preside... mittar... Report... by the a... and ead... A cent... Ottawa, ... centre o... which M... An an... dlers' W... tawa... An an... should... address... tawa... If pos... from the... which w... Suggest... To for... members... Cases... If exte... classes... In a p... provided... An an... for a... names, p... New... Ga... A New... Cance... sidered... serious... ery. B... science... nat. w... time, a... the cau... had the... full fall... fact the... tional... table C... the tr... brought... from th... and au... dition... of a to... ment... Send... two stu... each ref... not do... delay p... Ten... been... tests a... elect... Rosen... wood, ... the s... Birtle...