When Sir Dartnell comes to his "conclusions," every true reporter, who is endowed with capacity enough to be allowed away from home without a guardian, should be prepared with space to give them in extenso. No abbreviation can do them justice, so here is to you all with his splendid, sensible and kind last words of the very able report which has so interested us.

In relation to the information contained in the concluding paragraph, we can only say that we think it would have been wiser, in these times of infidelity and atheism, to have required an unqualified declaration of belief in any God, than to assent to any dogmatic analysis of Him. Farewell gallant Knight and friend A. V. H. Carpenter.

Sir Kt. Charles P. Utley, Milwaukee, is Grand Recorder.
