DERIVATION OF BOER It is curious to note, in connec It is curious to note, in connection with the national designation of our present foes in South Africa, the survivance in Scottish legal and agricultural parlance of the closely allied term "Bower," pronounced Booer. The expression is properly applied to a person who hires, from the propriet or or principal tenant of a farm, a stock of cows along with the right of grazing them on certain fields. The Bower makes in return a money pay-
