

DURING EXHIBITION SEASON We Will Have a GREAT CLEARING SALE.

We propose to change the programme and make this one of the liveliest months in the whole year. Commencing on the 11th of this month we will inaugurate a grand and stupendous Clearing Sale to make room for Fall and Winter Clothing. We will sell fine, reliable, stylish clothing for men and boys at a small advance on cost of material, sewing and trimmings; and yet the story is not half told. We can't tell it in this paper, there isn't room, but we will sell the goods at such prices as will bring buyers to our store by the score. When you are in the city taking in the Exhibition we invite you to call in and see for yourself. It won't cost you anything.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Let There Be Light.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 31.

ST.—At the close of the nineteenth century, and in view of the domination of the world by the Anglo-Saxon race, it is a matter of course that the Anglo-Saxon race should inaugurate a new system in regard to the many conflicting reports of substitutes being brought from other constitutions to vote, and as we have had repeated two statements of individuals voting for a candidate to give a majority in the poll when the results were otherwise, let us try to remedy the evil and effectually remove upon the ballot the world's personate the legitimate voter, and in our day and generation try to purify the hoodlum element who work for boogie. I would recommend that the medals be brought into play, and every individual's speech, his name be photographed. This system would prevent impersonation and ballot box stuffing. No patriot would object to have his photograph in trust of the government for such a legitimate procedure. The expense of elections would be greatly decreased, and Mr. Smith being absent or indisposed, would see at a glance who was kind enough to misrepresent him by looking at his number on the poll card. Candidates could then interview his family, and simplify matters before a magistrate. As this scheme will bear comment and much discussion, Mr. Editor kindly let us have light.

AMHERST, N. B., Aug. 31.

ST.—I have read some of your editorials with feelings of pleasure, as they have the old-time ring to them. I notice that from present appearances Mr. Francis of Passaic-Merger fame is likely to be a candidate for the dominion parliament, and if so, will probably be elected. I also know for a fact that his brother, license inspector for the city of Windsor, Ontario, is pressing his claims to the position for the north riding of Essex, and in all probability will get it and be elected, as the population there are about half French. There was a time when liberal politicians said the country was under French domination.
