JOHNSON & CO., as Custom House Street, Boston, Mass.

I seemed only a moment before there was a loud knocking, and somebody litted the latch of the door. The fire shone bright through the front of the old stove and made a little light in the room, but Mary Ann Robb waked up frightened and bewildered¹ Who's there ?² she called, as she found her crutch and went to the door. She was conscious of only her one great fear. They've come to take me to the poor-house! she said, and burst into tests. There was a till man, not John Mander,
