

14th HOWITZER BRIGADE HARD AT WORK AT WITHEY CAMP KEEN TO FACE THE HUNS

AN INTERESTING STORY OF THE TRIP ACROSS WRITTEN BY THE CHAPLAIN, CAPT. T. HARRISON—CANADA HAS DONE WELL, BUT ROAD TO TIPPERARY IS LONG AND ONLY WHOLE HEARTED EFFORT CAN ENSURE TRIUMPH.

Writing from Withey Camp, England, Capt. T. Harrison, chaplain, gives the following interesting description of the voyage across of the 14th Field Artillery Howitzer Brigade:

The 14th formed one of the brigades of the 4th Division Artillery, in training at Petawawa Camp, Ont., the greatest artillery camp ever under the British flag in the western hemisphere. The camp-ground was beautiful for situation, standing on a high rolling plateau on the south bank of the Ottawa River, with the Laurentian Hills forming a background, and with its rolling plains it was an ideal and picturesque camp ground. Severe was the training received, fitting the men in every way for the stern work of war. It was with an intense eagerness that the men formed up in their various batteries as one brigade and marched off to the strains of the inspiring music of the Canadian Horse Artillery Band. Thus the 8th of September in the evening saw the boys entrained, after three months of excellent training. The men were all wonderfully fit, although anxious to get overseas and take part in the stern work of the war. It was not without some feeling of regret that we left the old camp ground. How pleasant to us are some of the memories of dear old Petawawa. "Down where the Ottawa flows." Associations and friendships were formed which must last through the years. Nor can we readily forget the old camp ground, the beautiful Ottawa flowing by its majestic course to the all devouring deep, fed by the tributaries of a thousand hills spoke often to us in the language of the mission we were on—the defense of our beloved Christianity and our common civilization. Every boy there felt willing and ready to do his bit, with the lesson from the grand old river, that while our individual lives were short the national life was long, and as the Ottawa was fed by its tributaries in its majestic flow, so the national life was fed and fostered by the actions of the good, the noble and the wise. Not only our own 14th Brigade but indeed the whole division was representative of the best of our young Canadian life: from Halifax to Vancouver they assembled, and with their energy and determination they threw themselves into the work, catching the spirit of the old Laurentians in the background, to make our Empire as firm and as lasting as those grand old hills.

The journey to Halifax on the train was bright and pleasant, the conduct of the boys grand. How privileged I felt to be a chaplain with such boys. On Sunday we held divine service in the train, battery by battery. As the

To Cure Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can be successfully treated at home by an internal remedy that in many instances has effected a complete cure after all else has failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear a watch tick have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear.

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrh, or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand to them, and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home, and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmit (Double Strength), about 75c worth. Take this home, and add to it 14 pint of hot water and 4 ozs. of granulated sugar, stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

The first dose should begin to relieve the distressing head noises, headache, dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., while the hearing rapidly returns as the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell and mucus dropping in the back of the throat, are other symptoms that show the presence of catarrhal poison, and which are often entirely overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are said to be directly caused by catarrh, therefore, there must be many people whose hearing can be restored by this simple home treatment.

danger zone. There did not appear to be much apprehension of danger on board. A slight well worn feeling was the appearance of the destroyers as they came steaming up, not mounting, but cutting through the waves, dashed the spray to a great height. A feeling took possession of you as you watched those sea-hawks riding low in the water that it would be ill with any submarine that crossed their path.

On Friday morning we sighted the coast of Ireland. Dear old Erin! What strange and mingled feelings possessed us as we gazed upon their native hills once more. The years had rolled on, but the tenderness, love and affection for that old land remained, and we thanked God that once in the time of our youthful emotion we sang that bold anthem called "Erin Go Bragh."

Starting for England. With the 14th Brigade there sailed the 4th Pioneers, who had been in training at St. Andrews. On the morning of the 13th of September, to the strains of "Rule Britannia," the fleet put out to sea. With a calm sea everything went smooth. The first day only one incident caused a flutter. A sea-man from one of the transports fell overboard; the boats were lowered and he was picked up in a remarkably short time. "Very well done," signaled the escort, and the fleet of transports again steamed on their way. "A trick," suggested an officer to the chaplain, "how easy for a submarine to torpedo the ships when standing still," and yet when one looked at the escort with her broadside guns pointing to the fleet, it made you have quite a safe feeling, and thank Heaven for the boys in navy blue.

Divine Service Aboard Ship. On Thursday we awoke to a new day. The sun rose bright and high; breakfast over, the boys were paraded for physical exercise on the deck. During the day it was a new sight to some of the boys to watch a whale spouting in the distance. We sighted the lights of Cape Race about 10.30 in the evening. The usual fog and mist was encountered on the banks of Newfoundland. A few flying fish were of interest to the boys as they watched them leaping through the air.

On Sunday morning divine service was held on the aft part of the ship. Captain Harrison used the upper deck as a pulpit. This service will live with us for many years. Led by the band of the Pioneers, surrounded by the broad expanse of waters, that grand hymn, which will never grow old, was wafted over the waves:

"Oh, God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while life shall last,
And our perpetual home."

It had a significant meaning for us in this hour. "A good soldier of Jesus Christ," was the text. After stating how St. Paul had often seen the soldiers go by in his native city, as a youth, which probably led him to advise Timothy to endure hardness as a good soldier, Captain Harrison drew forth many of the qualities that go to make a soldier. "And now, boys, you, I hope, will soon land on the shores of Europe; may you be real soldiers, and remember the far fair land whence you came. Keep yourselves clean; conduct yourselves as Canadians and Christian gentlemen. We profess to go forth in defense of the liberty of nations, the protection of children, the chastity of women. We are being called to the heights; let us ascend and be worthy vessels to do His will. God bless you, boys, and keep you and bring you safe home. Amen." So closed our service. A collection for the widows' and orphans' fund of the Seaman's Institute raised £13 5s. 6d.

On Monday we commenced our ship's sports. Much interest was displayed in the boxing and tug-of-war contests. After a strenuous day the shadows fell. With a swift sea running, the good ship, with every port hole closed, plunged into the night, and as we composed ourselves to sleep, "Eternal Father, strong to save," meant something.

Life Belt Parade. On Tuesday we were still steaming through the mist and fog. The men were given physical exercise in the morning; in the afternoon our ship sports were continued; keen interest was taken in the wrestling bouts. In the midst of our sports we were called to a "life belt parade." This parade had the effect of bringing to the notice of the boys the fact that we were at sea. The boys fell into position with precision and calmness. In the evening a splendid concert on behalf of the Seaman's Institute was given by members of the ship's crew and members of the 14th Brigade. This was a complete success; one could not help be as the concert went along that the old flag still ruled the waves; thus passed another day.

done well, but it is still "a long way to Tipperary," and will require all our strength and devotion to bring this world's issue to a climax.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" ends all Stomach distress in five minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion, if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Matthew McGuigan took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 73 Queen street, to St. John the Baptist church, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. F. J. McMurray. Relatives acted as pall-bearers. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery. The funeral was largely attended and there were a number of beautiful floral tributes, including an anchor

IS U. S. LOOKING AFTER INTERESTS OF ALL NEUTRALS?

Pertinent Question Asked by Unionist Member in British Commons.

London, Oct. 12.—Ronald McNeill, member of parliament for the East Division of Kent, questioned Foreign Secretary Grey in the House of Commons regarding the correspondence between the United States and Germany on the questions of violations of international law. He asked "whether the government of the United States in its correspondence with the German government, and to its protests against violations of international law, has confined itself to consideration of American interests, or whether, as the most powerful neutral nation, it has made any attempt to protect neutral rights in general, or has protested against other things committed against other neutral nations."

Lord Robert Cecil, parliamentary under secretary for foreign affairs, and minister for war trade, replying, in behalf of Viscount Grey, said: "Our knowledge of the correspondence between the United States and German governments is derived from the documents published. It is for the United States government to define its position in the matter."

Peace Terms. London, Oct. 12.—David Mason, Liberal member for Coventry, asked Premier Asquith in the House of Commons today to furnish the house with particulars of the terms of peace which Germany was prepared to offer, and which he stated were intolerable. Premier Asquith, in reply, said that he referred to the terms announced in the German imperial chancellor's public speech.

FLOWERS OF BULBOUS GROUP TO COST MORE

Local Florist Declares That Tulips, Lilies and Similar Blooms Will Advance from 20 to 40 Per Cent.

Tulips, lilies, Jonquils, hyacinths, fuchsias and our old friends chionodoxa and arifhogalum, to say nothing about the other bulbs, such as eranthis hyemalis, will cost the 'lover of flowers in the bulbous group between twenty and forty per cent. more this year. The bulb industry in Holland, the home of tulips and other beautiful flowers of a family which includes the homely onion, is now much disturbed, and supplies from that country may not be relied upon. However, it was said yesterday by a florist that "the best can be had at about the advance stated. It was thought, a few weeks ago, that no bulbs would be on the market except at a prohibitive price, but they are already on sale here at, considering all conditions, reasonable figures."
