

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Saturday, April 22.

Although Easter week did not present many social attractions as was expected, there were enough social events of an interesting and sufficiently numerous to enable everyone to appear out in spring finery. In this connection consideration must be given to the fact that Easter having occurred so late in April hostesses have already begun to make plans for vacating their winter quarters preparatory to going to the country and those who remain in town are busy getting their houses ready for summer occupation, all of which tends to divert the attention of housewives from social obligations.

The most important of the events of the week in society was the subscription ball given by the Loyalist Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire at Keith's assembly room on Tuesday evening. The function was unusually successful, both from a social and financial standpoint. The hall room was artistically beautiful in its decorations and reflected great credit on the committee appointed for the purpose and of which Miss Katie Hazen was convener. Miss Winnie Raymond also received many congratulations upon the clever presentation of the society's badge which formed a feature of the wall decorations. Flags and bunting were used in profusion and the lights were charmingly subdued and arranged in a tasteful manner. The supper table was a beautiful one, obtained by prettily constructed orison shades. The reception room presented a very elegant appearance; costly rugs covered the floor space and handsome furniture was arranged to the advantage. The large room was the appearance of a gorgeous salon. In the dining room the same taste was displayed in the decoration scheme. The table was a beautiful one, supper table stood a huge fern in a crinoid jardiniere. Amidst the feathery green were placed innumerable tiny silk flags. Silver candelabra held red wax candles in the centre. The table was set with small plates of which there were twelve, silver candelabra holding red wax candles were placed in the centre. The nickel orchestra provided a splendid musical programme. The dancing was of an engagement cards were very dainty, having printed on the outside in colors the Union Jack.

Miss Katie Hazen and Miss Mabel McAvity, vice regents of the chapter, received the guests, Miss Hazen wearing a lovely blue satin gown with pink roses, Miss McAvity, handsome blue marquisette with knotted fringe trimmings. In the supper room where they poured tea and coffee were Mrs. William Vassie, in black nylon de soie over satin and trimmed with white lace; Mrs. Alexander Fowler, white satin, pearl garlands, bouquet of red roses; Miss Nan Barnaby, blue satin braided, white lace trimmings; and Miss Bertha Hegan, white marquisette, trimmed with blue fringe and lace. Mrs. Will Lockhart assisted in the dining room and wore white satin with pearl ornaments. The visitors in town who were present were Mrs. Charles W. Allen, Mrs. Rigfield (Conn.), who wore a very elegant black chiffon gown over black satin, gold trimmings; Miss Culvert, daughter of the American consul, who has been in Paris for the last few days; Mrs. W. Allen, who was handsomely gowned in pale green with black chiffon tulle; Miss Valerie Steeves, of Fredericton, who wore a beautiful English gown of blue tulle and lace, and carried a shawl bouquet of white carnations; Miss Ryan, of Hampton and Paris, who was gowned in white silk with lace trimmings; Mrs. McMillan, who wore a blue and white gown with black and white trimmings; Mrs. Harold Schofield, who left next day for England. The day being particularly fine many new costumes were worn. Easter flowers, the gifts of friends to the hostesses, gave to the occasion a beautiful appearance, veiling in artistic arrangement with the lovely spring hats of the guests. Miss McMillan, who, with her mother, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. F. C. Campbell, Mrs. W. Angus, Mrs. Frank Patterson, Mrs. Fred Schofield, Mrs. Hugh Bruce, Mrs. Ward Hazen, Miss Laura Hazen, Mrs. Royden Thomson, Mrs. Alexander Fowler, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. W. C.
