Filed Off.—Of the 36 vessels cast ashore at Cow Bay, C. B., during the day of the 24th of August last, all but six have been floated off.

"Shipping"—At Wood Point, Sackville, Mr. Clifford Atkinson is building a vessel, bark rigged, of 700 tons, for Messrs. Emery & Son, of this city, and others.

"Collision"—The brig A. H. Gillespie, col. lided with the little schooner Only Son, of Advocate Harbor, N. S., in the Basin of Mines, 284 inst., carrying away the spars of the latter. The Only Son arrived at Parnborough on Sunday under jury masts.

The S. S. Quinlan, with the English mail from Liverpool, via Queenstown, arrived at St. John's, N. F., at 4 p.m., 27th, and sailed for Halifax at 10 o'clock, where she was due this morning.

The S. S. Tyrian sailed from Halifax yesterday at noon and is due here about 12 o'clock to-night.

The S. S. Shark.—This vessel, which was stranded in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and the crew landed at this port, was insured in Yarmouth offices as follows: Marine, hull, $1,500; Pacific, hull, $1,500; Atlantic, freight, $2,000.

"Loss of the Antelope"—The schr. Antelope, Gaynor, sailed from Digby on Sunday, 26th inst., with a full cargo of lumber on 23rd inst., the vessel sprung a leak, and made water so rapidly that the pumps could not be kept free with the aid of three men; in about ten minutes the vessel was overboard. The Antelope had been lowered and efforts made to get the vessel in towards shore, but without avail. The master and crew took to the boat, without being able to save but a portion of their clothes and compass. The crew after a long row reached here on Sunday last. The vessel was owned by M. Clark, of Lunenburg and D. Green, and was uninsured. The cargo was shipped by Levi Young, of Digby, and S. A. Andrews, St. John's.

The question is in abeyance, and will be determined in June.

In Philadelphia, on Tuesday morning, a young lady named Lizzy Temple was shot in the face by Charles Yelder, both parties being at the time in a boarding house. Yelder entered the room where Miss Temple was, drew from his pocket a six-shooter and pointed it at her temple. When the pistol went off it was so close to her face that the powder blackened her skin. The ball, passing through her left eye, lodged in the roof of her mouth. Yelder swore that he was only in fun and did not know the pistol was loaded. He was arrested. The young lady is in a critical condition and must lose her eye.

The strawberry season in Virginia has fairly begun. The Norfolk berries are raised by Northern men who went into the business since the war. They have planted large tracts, and employ an army of men to take care of them. Being the first berry in the market, they command a good price. Labor is cheap in Virginia, so the boxing costs but little. Two cents a quart paid for the picking, and the cost of transportation by water is comparatively small. Hence the strawberry raisers are a financial clever, and are getting rich.
