

CONTENTS.

	Page.
I. THE ESKIMO TRIBES, THEIR COMMON ORIGIN, THEIR DISPERSION AND THEIR DIVERSITIES IN GENERAL	1.
Inventions for procuring the necessary means of subsistence (6) — Dwellings (10) — Dress and ornaments (12) — Domestic industry and arts (15) — Religion and folklore (16) — Sociology (21) — Distribution and Division (31).
II. THE ESKIMO LANGUAGE, ITS ADMIRABLE ORGANISATION AS TO THE CONSTRUCTION AND FLEXION OF WORDS . .	35.
The written language, letters and signs (39) — The parts of speech, the organisation of the language exhibited in its mode of construing and inflecting words (46) — Nouns and their flexion (49) — Particular nouns (52) — Verbs and their flexion (53) — Particles (60) — Syntax (61) — Construction of words by means of the dependent stems or affixes (63) — List of affixes, with examples of their use (65).
III. COMPARATIVE LIST OF THE STEM WORDS OR INDEPENDENT STEMS OF THE ESKIMO DIALECTS, WITH EXAMPLES OF THEIR DERIVATIVES	77.