CANADA'S OLDEST OFFICIAL STUDENT PUBLICATION

SPORTS

Christian

(See Page Four)

VOL 912NO. 39

FREDERICTON, N.B., FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1959

The Voice of UNB

ON MARKS LAST FLING FOR

GOODRIDGE IS CARNIVAL HEAD

The 1959 Winter Carnival Committee held it's final meeting on March 10. Norm Goodridge, a third year business administration student, was elected as Winter Carnival Chairman for 1960. This appointment is subject to ratification by the SRC.

A financial statement of the Winter Carnival was not available at the time of the meeting due to a large number of outstanding bills.

Many people during the last Carnival expressed the desire to put forward suggestions for the improvement of the Carnival. Their only complaint was that they did not know who to approach. In accord with the wishes of the students, a suggestion box will be placed outside the cafeteria from today through next Thursday. The as many students as possible will the end of student activities before final exams. Carnival Committee hopes that submit their opinions and suggestions for the benefit of next years Carnival. The Committee would appreciate signatures at the bottom of the suggestion in to be discussed with the person

Six new members are among those elected to next year's Committee. Dave Hashey, former treasurer of the SRC will control the purse strings. Bob Soward, tions, and Opening Night respectively,

Due to the rapid growth of the Carnival in recent years, it was deemed essential that a new Committee be instituted to handle all purchasing. This position of Purchasing Manager will be filled by Herb Shephard.

Ripley and Jack Brownell.

Shown here are (l. to r.) Freddie Critchley, Joan Young and Dawn Bell putting the finishing touches to one of the sprigs of cherry blossoms that will help carry out the Oriental theme of the 'Con" which takes place tonight. This is Joan Young's last job as this year's Decorations Committee Chairman. The formal dance, taking place at the Lady Beaverbrook Gymnasium, marks

HELP!

The Creative Arts Council has issued a plea for billets for the the event that the idea might have Bowdoin Glee Club scheduled to appear here Sunday evening.

choir arrives in Fredericton Sun-seminar at the University of day afternoon, and at press time Montreal from August 30 to Sepbillets had been obtained for only thirty-seven of the singers. Anytures, Prizes, Campus Decora- House, Carol MacPherson, or omic and political aspects". Miss Nan Gregg, Records Librar-

> The concert will start at 8.15 and the selections to be heard range from the classical music of Handel and Mozart to the Broadway favourites of Rogers and Hammerstein.

The Men's Badminton team gained top laurels last weekend, winning the NB Provincial Senior Singles Championship and the Intercollegiate Doubles Championship. The girls team placed second to Mount A., who won top honors, taking the singles and doubles

row, left to right: Norris Menzies (Coach), John MacDougall, Don

Members of the UNB teams are: front row, left to right: Marcia Hickman, Laureen MacElmon and Mary Jean McNichol; back

NFCUS Seminar Aug. 30 - Sept. 5

The National Federation of Canadian University Students is The seventy member all-male sponsoring its second annual tember 5.

The theme of this seminar will one who can provide overnight be "The influence of the various and George Bryson, all assistant lodging and breakfast for mem- cultures on Canadian National chairmen last year, will head the bers of this choir is asked to development, with special refer-Committees of Floats and Sculp- contact Stephen Hart at Aitken ences to the artistic, social, econ-

The seminar offers the opportunity to meet fellow students from all parts of Canada, and to participate in group discussions, formal lectures and panel presen-

UNB students wishing to attend the seminar must plan to this time of year. return to the university in the fall. Applications should be forwarded to Jim Ross, UNB NFCUS Chairman.

of $10 is required, but all other expenses, such as food, lodging and travel, will be paid by the National Secretariat. Deadline for applications is March 31.

EIC Applications

Membership applications for the Engineering Institute of Canada will be accepted until one week after the Easter recess.

There are many application forms out, indicating that many students wish to join, yet have not handed their forms in, says Hans Foerstel, EIC Chairman.

Don't Forget Application Deadline Tomorrow

Olive Saved

At last Olive, the alligator, has a home.

This refugee from Florida's with the purpose of making Irish muffens, John Drew and Barry Yoell, has become the property of Vernon Saunders, equipment superintendent at the Lady Beaverbrook Gym.

Messrs. Drew and Yoell were she became literally a growing lines not to cross: problem. When she arrived in Fredericton a few weeks ago, this ravishing reptile was a little former owners predict that by Easter Olive will be large enough to attempt to eat that hare which habitually makes an appearance fine.

former owners was filled with from Campus Police report. emotion. In a choked voice, a tearful John Drew was finally you later . . . "-Aw, you know An individual registration fee able to muster the words, "See the rest.

The Conversazione, or "Con" as it has come to be known, is the last big dance of the college year, and marks the official end of student activities before final exams. The Con and the Fall Formal are the only two formals open to all students on the cam-

Sponsored by the SRC, the Con has changed considerably from its original form. It has evolved from an evening of essays, recitations and revues in the great hall of the Arts Building to a formal dance in the Lady Beaverbrook Gymnasium. Its function has remained the same, that of marking the end of student activities each year.

Exotic Atmosphere

This year's Con promises an evening in an exotic Oriental atmosphere. A jewelled Buddha and a ferocious dragon will have top place in the decoration scheme.

The Collegians will provide the music. Photographs commemorating the occasion will be taken downstairs by Roch Dufresne.

Admission

All students must show their SRC passes at the door. If one member of a couple has a student's pass, that couple may enter Everglades, who was sent to UNB free. Tickets for guest couples may be purchased at the SRC stew out of a couple of English office from Marg Corey today at noon from 1.30 to 2.30. Tickets are $5 per couple.

Vos Vill Vatch

Comrade Vos is warning not to kick heels too high tonight, forced to part with Olive after or is bad fall coming. Here are

1. Any student displaying fact that he has intoxicating liquor is to have name reported to SRC, under twelve inches long. The liquor confiscated, and is being told to please leave.

2. If displaying profane language, is liable to red carpet and

3. If conduct unbecoming is The parting of Olive with her liable to discipline through SDC,

The Gaiety Men's Shop Trophy for inter-residence competition in campus blood donor clinics is shown here as it was presented to Herb Shephard, President of the Lady Beaverbrook Residence Society, the current holders. Pictured left to right are Harry Goldman, manager of the Gaiety Men's Shop, Eric Jamieson, Co-ordinator of inter-residence blood donor competition, Eileen Stiven, Chairman of the UNB Blood Donor Drive, Art VanWart, President of the Pre-Med Club and Mr. Shephard

Consolawhere n scores reached s Singles dings of ment:

Men's

with Ted win the ship, on 5, 15-12. Consolamed up

18 ernard 1

hold its day at 7 ill be the t chance mbership approxirs in the belt to elts and to be in it so that for next expected

lub m

929