"What would you do (if anything) to improve campus security?"

Monique Le Blanc, 3rd year Chemistry
"More lights — I've noticed there's a lot of dark areas around. Especially bushes and stuff like that — make sure they're well-lit and make sure the foliage is kept down."

Tobin Kelly, 2nd year Commerce, Tiger Patrol
"I think people should be made more aware of Tiger Patrol and what we do."

Tandine Nyajeka, 3rd year Political Science & Psychology (at right)

"Have some of the areas more well-lit, especially in certain areas, like behind the A&A. Let people know more of what's available."

Randy Morgan, 4th year English

"I think more nightly patrols would be a good idea. I see a lot of hoodlums running around here late at night, you know, intoxicated—really not appropriate for a social environment where people can actually converse (sic)."

Ramaz El Samrout, 2nd year Commerce

"I don't think that security can determine between strangers and students. To be honest, I prefer a closed campus."
