Ottawa 8th June, 1905.

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose herewith for taxation Mr J.D. Leduc's accounts for professional services rendered in connection with the release from gaol of the Indian Kenotasse. These accounts were sent to the Department in response to a letter of the 5th ultimo, in which Mr Leduc was asked to forward a properly itemized account for his services from the 23rd January last, upon which date the Department assumed certain responsibility in the matter. Kindly therefore tax the account from that date.

In conclusion I beg to refer you to this Department's letter of the 20th April which deals with the account of Messrs Smith, Markey, Montgomery & Skinner, in which the matter is fully explained.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.

The Deputy Minister of Justice,
