

288497.

Ottawa, 4th October, 1906.

Sir,-

With reference to your letter of the 11th ultimo, I have to say that your request relating to the land you occupy in the Pas Indian reserve has been noted.

A surrender has been taken of five hundred acres of land in the said reserve, which includes the land occupied by yourself. If the surrendered is accepted and action taken thereon, your case will be duly considered, and you will be further advised.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Secretary.

John H. Gordon, Esq.,
The Pas, N.W.T.
