

in Peterborough, which must have been a most enthusiastic one. You made the best of the "fall" of the Ontario platform.
There was a great chance for a centenary had there been any closer enough! Did you see the picture of "Plum" in the "Star" after your Markham meeting?
How I must go to bed and I have answered one of my birthday letters yet or written to Nelson for two weeks.
There seems to be so little time when I have no mail. I am going to write to Dorcas; also put ads in the local papers this week.
All the children & Harry are well from with me in sending best love. Again many thanks dear Willie for all your birthday greetings & gifts. From loving sister Jennie
